Bloom, 2016 Emily Bloom chronicles the emergence of the British Broadcasting Corporation as a significant promotional platform and aesthetic influence for Irish modernism from the 1930s to the 1960s She situates the works of W B Yeats Elizabeth Bowen Louis MacNeice and Samuel Beckett in the context of the media environments that shaped their works The Son of Man Kari B Lilja, 2020-06-19 Jesus of Nazareth is the most influential historical person He was about thirty years old He was active for no more than about three years He never went abroad and spoke no foreign languages Neither he nor his followers conquered any towns or countries He wrote no books Despite all this he is thought to have approximately two billion followers today Jesus of Nazareth is known through four different gospel texts We are talking about text that has had the largest impact on the world After about 2 000 years this

The Hong Kong Protests and Political Theology Kwok Pui-lan, Francis Ching-Wah Yip, 2021-02-08 The Hong Kong protests that began in the second half of 2019 captured the world's attention as demonstrations against an extradition bill grew into a larger civil liberties movement While protests began as peaceful demonstrations the disproportionate police force with which the government responded escalated the situation to an international crisis Kwok Pui-lan and Francis Ching-wah Yip bring together an international cohort to discuss the relation between Christianity and Communism and the neoliberal economy as well as civil disobedience religion and social movements and the roles of the churches in social conflict This interdisciplinary volume showcases theological reflections by many scholars and activists in Hong Kong

The Godman and the Sea Michael J. Thate, 2019-11-01 If scholars no longer necessarily find the essence and origins of what came to be known as Christianity in the personality of a historical figure known as Jesus of Nazareth it nevertheless remains the case that the study of early Christianity is dominated by an assumption of the force of Jesus's personality on divergent communities In The Godman and the Sea Michael J Thate shifts the terms of this study by focusing on the Gospel of Mark which ends when Mary Magdalene Mary the mother of James and Salome discover a few days after the crucifixion that Jesus's tomb has been opened but the corpse is not there Unlike the other gospels Mark does not include the resurrection portraying instead loss puzzlement and despair in the face of the empty tomb Reading Mark's Gospel as an exemplary text Thate examines what he considers to be retellings of other traumatic experiences the stories of Jesus's exorcising demons out of a man and into a herd of swine his stilling of the storm and his walking on the water Drawing widely on a diverse set of resources that include the canon of western fiction classical literature the psychological study of trauma phenomenological philosophy the new materialism psychoanalytic theory poststructural philosophy and Hebrew Bible scholarship as well as the expected catalog of New Testament tools of biblical criticism in general and Markan scholarship in particular The Godman and the Sea is an experimental reading of the Gospel of Mark and the social force of the sea within its traumatized world More fundamentally however it attempts to position this reading as a story of trauma ecstasy and what has become through the ruins of past pain
