Family Violence and Criminal Justice Brian K. Payne, Randy R. Gainey, 2014-09-25 The historical context of family violence is explored as well as the various forms of violence their prevalence in specific stages of life and responses to it made by the criminal justice system and other agencies The linkage among child abuse partner violence and elder abuse is scrutinized and the usefulness of the life course approach is couched in terms of its potential effect on policy implications research methods that recognize the importance of life stages trajectories and transitions and crime causation theories that can be enhanced by it

Policing Domestic Abuse Katy Barrow-Grint, Jacqueline Sebire, Jackie Turton, Ruth Weir, 2022-11-01 This book is dedicated to improving the practice of the policing of domestic abuse Its objective is to help inform those working in policing about the dynamics of how domestic abuse occurs how best to respond to and investigate it and in the longer term how to prevent it Divided into thematic areas the book uses recent research findings to update some of the theoretical analysis and to highlight areas of good practice what works and why An effective investigation and the prosecution of offenders are considered as well as an evaluation of the success of current treatment options Policing domestic abuse can only be dealt with through an effective partnership response The responsibilities of each agency and the statutory processes in place when policy is not adhered to are outlined Core content includes A critique of definitions and theoretical approaches to domestic abuse including coverage of the myths surrounding domestic abuse and their impact on policing An exploration on the challenges of collecting data on domestic abuse looking at police data and the role of health and victim support services A critical review of different forms of abuse different perpetrators and victims and risk assessment tools used by the police A critical examination of the law relating to domestic abuse how police resources are deployed to respond to and manage it and best practice in investigation gathering evidence and prosecution Key perspectives on preventing domestic abuse protecting victims and reducing harm Written with the student and budding practitioner in mind this book is filled with case studies current research reports and media examples as well as a variety of reflective questions and a glossary of key terms to help shed light on the challenges of policing domestic violence and the links between academic research and best practice Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence Rachel Starr, 2018-04-17 Domestic violence is a significant threat to women's survival But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships Can the Church's teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts Argentina and England Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage Drawing on Augustine's notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save Race/Gender/Class/Media Rebecca Ann Lind, 2023-03-14 The fifth edition of this popular textbook considers diversity in the mass media in three main settings Audiences Content and Production The book brings together 55 readings the majority newly commissioned for this edition by scholars representing a variety of humanities and social science disciplines Together these readings provide a multifaceted and intersectional look at how race gender and class relate to the creation and use of media texts as well as the media texts themselves Designed to be flexible for use in the classroom the book begins with a detailed introduction to key concepts and presents a contextualizing introduction to each of the three main sections Each reading contains multiple It's Your Turn activities to foster student engagement and which can serve as the basis for assignments The book also offers a list of resources books articles films and websites that are of value to students and instructors This volume is an essential introduction to interdisciplinary studies of race gender and class across both digital and legacy media Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice

Justice for Kids Nancy E. Dowd, 2011-10-01 Children and youth become involved with the juvenile justice system at a significant rate While some children move just as quickly out of the system and go on to live productive lives as adults other children become enmeshed in the system developing deeper problems and or transferring into the adult criminal justice system Justice for Kids is a volume of work by leading academics and activists that focuses on ways to intervene at the earliest possible point to rehabilitate and redirect to keep kids out of the system rather than to punish and drive kids deeper Justice for Kids presents a compelling argument for rethinking and restructuring the juvenile justice system as we know it This unique collection explores the system's fault lines with respect to all children and focuses in particular on issues of race gender and sexual orientation that skew the system Most importantly it provides specific program initiatives that offer alternatives to our thinking about prevention and deterrence with an ultimate focus on keeping kids out of the system altogether Journal of Crime & Justice, 2002 Preventing Family Violence Ko-Ling Chan, 2012-01-01 Annotation
