Lander, Bill Smith, 2010 A truly alternative look at music lists not one that merely includes the obvious but shows the connections of popular music to the avant garde the obscure the experimental the quirky and the adventurous this edition leads the curious reader towards new musical experiences hitherto unknown to them Live at The Cellar Marian Jago, 2018-10-15 In the 1950s and 60s co operative jazz clubs such as Vancouver's Cellar Edmonton's Yardbird Suite and Halifax's 777 Barrington Street opened their doors in response to new forms of jazz expression emerging after the war and a lack of available performance spaces outside major urban centres Operated on a not for profit basis by the musicians themselves these hip new clubs created spaces where young jazz musicians could practise their art close to home Live at the Cellar looks at this unique period in the development of jazz in Canada Centered on Vancouver's legendary Cellar club and including co ops in four other cities it explores the ways in which these clubs functioned as sites for the performance and exploration of jazz as well as magnets for countercultural expression in other arts such as literature theatre and film Marian Jago's deft combination of new original research with archival evidence interviews and photographs allows us to witness the beginnings of a pan Canadian jazz scene as well as the emergence of key Canadian jazz figures such as P J Perry Don Thompson and Terry Clarke and the rise of jazz icons such as Paul Bley and Ornette Coleman Although the Cellar and other jazz co ops are long shuttered in their day they created a new and infectious energy that still reverberates in Canada's jazz scene today Experimentalism Otherwise Benjamin Piekut, 2011-04-04 In Experimental Otherwise Benjamin Piekut takes the reader into the heart of what we mean by experimental in avant garde music Focusing on one place and time New York City 1964 Piekut examines five disparate events the New York Philharmonic's disastrous performance of John Cage's Atlas Eclipticalis Henry Flynt's demonstrations against the downtown avant garde Charlotte Moorman's Avant Garde Festival the founding of the Jazz Composers Guild and the emergence of Iggy Pop Drawing together a colorful array of personalities Piekut argues that each of these examples points to a failure and marks a limit or boundary of canonical experimentalism What emerges from these marginal moments is an accurate picture of the avant garde not as a style or genre but as a network defined by disagreements struggles and exclusions The Composer's Black Box Theodore Gordon, 2025-12-02 Stories about new musical instruments are often told as quests for new kinds of sounds The Composer's Black Box asks What happens when new musical instruments produce not only new sounds but also new dynamics of musical agency and control And what consequences do those new dynamics have for musicality beyond sound With a focus on five key figures Morton Subotnick Pauline Oliveros Donald Buchla Alvin Lucier and Sun Ra this book explores how scientific and technological developments in mid twentieth century America galvanized musicians to reconfigure their conceptions of sociality freedom and the creative self Theodore Gordon shows how cybernetic thinking in a range of disciplines from experimental music to jazz and electrical engineering has shaped musical techniques and technologies and changed what it means to be a composer or more broadly a music making human in an increasingly informational world Jazz Eddie S.
