Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Tommasina Gabriele, 2015-12-03 Dacia Maraini's Narratives of Survival Re Constructed focuses on Dacia Maraini's narrative from about 1984 to 2004 and makes substantive use of her interviews and essays While acknowledging the importance and ongoing validity of feminist scholarship of Maraini's work this book seeks to take scholarship on Maraini beyond feminist readings by identifying a critical framework that cuts across gender and genre and thereby invites alternative readings Using a method of close textual analysis the author includes studies of men children animals and imaginary characters in Maraini's narrative analyzes language character motifs and symbols and considers some of Maraini's work in light of declining postmodern and emerging posthuman critical social theory This critical framework identifies the paradigm of reconstruction as narrative center both strategy and theme of many of Maraini's works from this twenty year period and beyond Reconstruction here signifies the strategies by which Maraini's deep investment in survival which has its roots in the life threatening conditions she experienced as a small child in a WWII Japanese concentration camp is enacted in a narrative re building and re constructing of personal memory of various personal social and political histories of motherhood and maternal discourses of crime stories of postmodern fragmentation and even of the process of erasure itself Maraini's narrative is deeply attentive to the mechanisms that threaten survival of the body and not just the woman's body psychological and aesthetic survival the survival in the Italian canon of a woman author's work memory and legacy after her death the survival of a drug addicted and self destructive younger generation and by extension collective and ecological survival Never marked by nihilism or despair Maraini's narratives offer the ethos of reconstruction as a variation on the begin again that marks the end of many of her novels and as we can see in Colomba her own aesthetic process of renewal and regeneration This book focuses primarily on Il treno per Helsinki 1984 Isolina 1985 some of her short stories for children La nave per Kobe Diari giapponesi di mia madre 2001 Buio Strega Literary Prize 1999 and Colomba 2004

Rewriting the Journey in Contemporary Italian Literature Cinzia Sartini Blum, 2008-09-06 The mobility of women is a central issue in feminist analysis of literary works and historical periods Rewriting the Journey in Contemporary Italian Literature explores the concept of the journey from feminist psychoanalytic and postcolonial perspectives in order to offer an alternative understanding of moving Cinzia Sartini Blum examines the new literature of migration in Italian and journeys in the works of Biancamaria Frabotta Dacia Maraini Toni Maraini and Maria Pace Ottieri to demonstrate that women writers and migrant authors in contemporary Italy present journeys as events that are beyond heroic modern exploration and postmodern fragmentation Using the mythical figure of Gradiva Blum shows how contemporary Italian women writers have reinvented Gradiva to reveal subjectivities that challenge and overcome the postmodern melancholia and nihilism prevalent in contemporary male writers and thinkers She also considers the connection between metaphorical and literal mobility the role of the intellectual as cultural intermediary the roles of women in cultural encounters within mass migrations and how migrancy is a way of being in the postcolonial world An impeccable piece of original scholarship Rewriting the Journey in Contemporary Italian Literature will be of interest to feminist literary and postcolonial scholars Letture marginali e altri sconfinamenti Ugo Fracassa, 2007 My Husband Dacia

Maraini, 2004-03-04 In Italy as in most Western cultures the 1960s was a dynamic and turbulent decade of social change Dacia Maraini in this short story collection explores the vexing tragic and often humorous experiences of women living in modern urban Italy With a style as lean as Samuel Beckett's and a love of the absurd that rivals Eugène Ionesco Maraini's stories are both poignant and wickedly funny The writer's ironic lens zooms in to examining sexual relations working conditions women's issues and family dynamics illuminating the lives of an entire generation With classic existential angst Maraini's characters are often profoundly dissatisfied with their situations but also ill equipped to initiate any real change This feminist version of the absurd is deliciously wry and terrible The stories have a real bite Originally published as Mio marito in 1968 this is the first English translation of My Husband Storie racconti favole per bambini Maurizio
