ignored and silenced other voices Centering on novels films memoirs and poster art that gave aesthetic expression to the Iran Iraq War the essays gathered in this volume present multiple perspectives on the war s most complex and underrepresented narratives These scholars do not naively claim to represent an authenticity lacking in official discourses of the war but rather they call into question the notion of authenticity itself Finding deciding upon and creating a language that can convey any sort of truth at all collective national or private is the major preoccupation of the texts and critiques in this diverse collection Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures Glenda Abramson, Hilary Kilpatrick, 2006 This book brings together fascinating discussions of the way in which Muslim and Jewish beliefs and practices are represented in modern literary texts of poetry fiction and drama The chapters collected here consider elements of the expression of Judaism and Islam in modern literature Key topics such as religious ideas and teachings aspects of mysticism the tenets of religion uses made of sacred texts religion and popular culture and reflections of religious controversies are covered While there is an embodied comparative element to the chapters the essays are not confined by comparisons and cover a wide range of the literary expression of religious issues With contributions from a group of international scholars all of whom are experts in the field and each of whom has brought a particular perspective to the topic this book is a significant contribution to and will stimulate further research on the various literatures treated reflection on comparative work on these two cultural traditions and new interest in literary expressions of religion and religiousness in general Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari, Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak, 2012-01-13 When Arcade Publishing originally contracted this extraordinary collection of poetry and literature the Department of the Treasury was attempting to censor the publication of works from countries on America's enemies list Arcade along with the PEN American Center the Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division and the Association of American University Presses filed a lawsuit in federal court against the United States government Their landmark case forced the Office of Foreign Assets Control to change their regulations regarding editing and publishing literature in translation and Arcade is proud to reissue this anthology that showcases the developments in Iranian literature over the past quarter century Since the Iranian revolution of 1979 the United States has been virtually cut off from that country's culture Despite severe difficulties imposed by social political and economic upheavals as well as war repression and censorship a veritable cultural renewal has taken place in Iran over the past quarter century not only in literature but in music art and cinema Over forty writers from three generations contributed to this rich and varied collection or to use the Persian term golchine a bouquet one that provides a much needed window into a largely undiscovered branch of world literature In the wake of the Green Revolution and sweeping changes in the region this particular golchine is more relevant than ever and will bring literary enjoyment as well as a fuller understanding of a complex and ever shifting culture Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Iewish Literatures .
