Stories About Incidents 19151940:

Australia, Britain and Migration, 1915-1940 Michael Roe, 2002-06-06 The story of Australia's post war immigration program is well known but little has been written about migration to Australia between the wars This 1995 book is a systematic study of assisted emigration from Britain to Australia during the inter war years It looks at the British and Australian politicians and bureaucrats involved in the program and the half million migrants who uprooted themselves While their imperial ties were significant the book shows that British and Australian governments acted in their own interests using migration to meet their different needs with little regard for the migrants themselves Michael Roe shows that the Anglo Australian relationship was rife with contradictions and these often came to a head in the debates over migration Not only is the book an important study of imperial relations in the 1920s and 1930s it describes an important and overlooked aspect of Australian political and social history THEORIES OF MEANING IN POETRY, 1915-1940; A CRITICAL HISTORY.

BARBARA C. C. WOODWARD, 1946 Modern School of Stelton Twenty-fifth Anniversary, 1915-1940 Modern School (Stelton, N.J.), 1940 50 Events That Shaped African American History Jamie J. Wilson, 2019-09-19 This two volume work celebrates 50 notable achievements of African Americans highlighting black contributions to U S history and examining the ways black accomplishments shaped American culture This two volume encyclopedia offers a unique look at the African American experience from the arrival of the first 20 Africans at Jamestown through the launch of the Black Lives Matter movement and the Ferguson Protests It illustrates subjects such as the Jim Crow period the Brown v Board of Education case that overturned segregation Jackie Robinson's landmark integration of major league baseball and the election of Barack Obama as president of the United States Drawing from almost 400 years of U S history the work documents the experiences and impact of black people on every aspect of American life Presented chronologically the selected events each include at least one primary source to provide the reader with a first person perspective These range from excerpts of speeches given by famous African American figures to programs from the March on Washington The remarkable stories collected here bear witness to the strength of a group of people who chose to survive and found ways to work collectively to force America to live up to the promise of its founding How Museums Tell Stories Amelia Wong, 2025-03-27 How Museums Tell Stories explains how museums work as a form of media that narrates stories intentionally and unintentionally Story in life and in museums is a phenomenon that emerges as people perceive represent and interpret the qualities of tellability and narrativity in relation to stimuli Tellability is noteworthiness it attracts our attention Narrativity is a set of elements that enables us to perceive a story is being or could be told The book discusses how and why these qualities are so present in museums and how they enable physical institutions to tell stories in many forms at many scales in many styles of representation and to varying degrees Drawing on conceptions of narrative from literary theory film psychology and cognitive science Wong offers a shared vocabulary for understanding and analyzing how story manifests in museums at the level of objects collections

exhibitions and space How Museums Tell Stories will be essential reading for researchers and students interested in how and why museums engage audiences as well as museum and cultural heritage practitioners seeking concepts and analytical tools for approaching and evaluating their work more critically and conscientiously
