Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors. The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Frigl Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O Casey J M Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author s career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume Great Irish Wives Nicola Pierce, 2025-09-08 Throughout history the stories of women s lives and work have been overshadowed by those of men Wives especially disappear unacknowledged as patrons and champions of their husband s work as collaborators muses carers and managers of the family domain Great Irish Wives shines a spotlight on ten such wives Matilda Tone Mary O Connell Constance Wilde Charlotte Shaw Emily Shackleton Annette Carson Sin ad de Valera Margaret Clarke George Yeats and Beatrice Behan The men in this book are household names from Wolfe Tone and Daniel O Connell to Oscar Wilde and Brendan Behan and they all have one thing in common they married women who enabled them to pursue their dreams even if that meant courting death or outrage Nicola Pierce tells the stories of these truly remarkable women A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm, Cheryl Alexander Malcolm, 2009-01-30 A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story provides a comprehensive treatment of short fiction writing and chronicles its development in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Provides a comprehensive treatment of the short story in Britain and Ireland as it developed over the period 1880 to the present Includes essays on topics and genres as well as on individual texts and authors Comprises chapters on women s writing Irish fiction gay and lesbian writing and short fiction by immigrants to Britain Great Irish Stories of the Supernatural Peter Ten Days in July Tom Kerr, 2010-08-31 In 1993 Ronald McCaul the chief strategist of the Provos in Haining, 1992 Northern Ireland and Thomas O Connor one of their most famous gunman escaped from Castlereagh Interrogation Center in Belfast The two appeared to dissolve into thin air In July 1998 they reappear in the Republic of Ireland and are arrested by the Garda the Police Force of the Republic McCaul who was sick when arrested asked O Connor to take his body home to Wales if he dies O Connor agreed to McCaul s request Within days McCaul died Chief Superintendent Patrick T Kerrigan of the Garda proposed to use O Connor as a bait to lure members of the Provos into a trap The trap failed O Connor was rescued by the Provos and whisked into Northern Ireland Kerrigan and his unit become the butt of both official and public criticism A plan is hatched to transport McCaul s body to Wales but the authorities from both the Republic and Northern Ireland decided to have McCaul's remains cremated within days This is to prevent the Provos the opportunity for a public funeral with speeches by the Provos firebrands In addition the British SIS MI 5 were aware of O Connors activities from recorded telephone conversations The Irish Short Story at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Madalina

Armie, 2022-12-30 In the mid 1990s Ireland was experiencing the best of times The Celtic Tiger seemed to instil in the national consciousness that poverty was a problem of the past The impressive economic performance ensured that the Republic occupied one of the top positions among the world's economic powers During the boom dissident voices continuously criticised what they considered to be a mirage identifying the precariousness of its structures and foretelling its eventual crash The 2008 recession proved them right Throughout this time the Irish contemporary short story expressed distrust Enabled by its capacity to reflect change with immediacy and dexterity the short story saw through the smokescreen created by the Celtic Tiger discourse of well being It reinterpreted and captured the worst and the best of the country and became a bridge connecting tradition and modernity The major objective of this book is to analyse the interactions between fiction and reality during this period in Ireland by studying the short stories written by old and emergent voices published between the birth of the Celtic Tiger in 1995 up to its immediate aftermath in 2013 Ireland's Story Charles Johnston, Carita Spencer, 1923 The Sister Fidelma Mysteries Edward J. Rielly, David Robert Wooten, 2012-08-30 This is a collection of new essays on Peter Tremayne's Sister Fidelma novels which feature Sister Fidelma's attempts to solve a wide range of crimes often murders that occur under especially mysterious conditions The novels set mainly in 7th century Ireland also include a great deal of history which is not surprising given that the author is actually Peter Berresford Ellis a noted Celtic historian Some of the essays analyze aspects of the novels focusing especially on the protagonist and her partner in detection and ultimately husband Brother Eadulf Other essays place Fidelma and the novels within the tradition of detective fiction Still others explore the historical intellectual spiritual and geographical contexts for her labors Also included are accounts of the author's career the International Sister Fidelma Society and the biennial Sister Fidelma conferences held in Cashel Ireland Irish Novels 1890-1940 John Wilson Foster, 2008-02-21 Studies of Irish fiction are still scanty in contrast to studies of Irish poetry and drama Attempting to fill a large critical vacancy Irish Novels 1890 1940 is a comprehensive survey of popular and minor fiction mainly novels published between 1890 and 1922 a crucial period in Irish cultural and political history Since the bulk of these sixty odd writers have never been written about certainly beyond brief mentions the book opens up for further exploration a literary landscape hitherto neglected perhaps even unsuspected This new landscape should alter the familiar perspectives on Irish literature of the period first of all by adding genre fiction science fiction detective novels ghost stories New Woman fiction and Great War novels to the Irish syllabus secondly by demonstrating the immense contribution of women writers to popular and mainstream Irish fiction Among the popular and prolific female writers discussed are Mrs J H Riddell B M Croker M E Francis Sarah Grand Katharine Tynan Ella MacMahon Katherine Cecil Thurston W M Letts and Hannah Lynch Indeed a critical inference of the survey is that if there is a discernible tradition of the Irish novel it is largely a female tradition A substantial postscript surveys novels by Irish women between 1922 and 1940 and relates them to the work of their female antecedents This ground breaking survey should also alter the familiar perspectives on the Ireland of 1890 1922 Many of the popular works were problem novels and hence throw light on contemporary thinking and debate on the Irish Question After the Irish Literary Revival and creation of the Free State much popular and mainstream fiction became a lost archive neglected evidence indeed of a lost Ireland Boulevard Wren and Other Stories Blindboy Boatclub, 2019-11-01 Boulevard Wren and Other Stories is the stunning follow up to the bestselling Gospel According to Blindboy and a warped mirror held up to the Irish psyche Provocative and unsettling the stories rove through the centuries from the barren fields of Famine struck Meath to the chaotic landscape of the near future where social media has colonised the deepest recesses of the human subconscious This is a world populated by characters lost and at odds with the demands of contemporary life for whom the line separating redemption and madness has grown impossibly fine Razor sharp social satire it is an era defining work from one of Ireland's most anarchic satirists and a quietly devastating portrait of a society in disarray The Presence of the Past in Children's Literature Ann Lucas, 2003-09-30 Time is one of the most prominent themes in the relatively young genre of children's literature for the young like adults want to know about the past This book explores how children's writers have treated the theme and concept of time. The volume starts with the application of literary theory and additionally analyzes examples of the juvenile historical novel In doing so it also examines changing fashions in criticism and publishing and the pressure they exert on writers It then considers literary adaptations of myths and archetypes constructions of history in children's literature colonial and postcolonial children's fiction and the treatment of the past in the postmodern era The book looks at literature from around the world and the expert contributors are from diverse countries and backgrounds While the book looks primarily at literature of the 19th and 20th centuries it considers a broad range of historical material treated in works from that period Included are discussions of such topics as Joan of Arc in children's literature the legacy of Robinson Crusoe colonial and postcolonial children's literature the Holocaust and the supernatural International in scope the volume examines history and collective memory in Portuguese children s fiction Australian history in picture books Norwegian children's literature and literary treatments of the great Irish famine
