Stories From Western Canada:

Stories from Western Canada Rudy Wiebe, 1972      Stories from Western Canada Rudy Wiebe, 1972      Stories from Western Canada Rudy Wiebe, 1975      Campfire Stories of Western Canada Barbara Smith, 2016 A fun for all ages collection of over thirty spooky stories in settings across Western Canada When friends and family gather around a campfire good times and scary stories are sure to follow In Campfire Stories of Western Canada Barbara Smith the author of twenty books of true ghost stories from across Canada presents a creepy collection of tales tailor made for your family's next foray into the British Columbia or Alberta wilderness Suitable for campers aged eight to eighty these tales combine truth and local legend with truly bone chilling results From the phantom swimmer on a Vancouver Island beach to the lost lights of Waterton Provincial Park these tales will keep the shivers running down your spine long after the campfire's last embers have died away      The Stories of Canada's Frontier Julian Ralph, 2023-11-24 In The Stories of Canada's Frontier Julian Ralph masterfully intertwines rich narrative and historical detail to bring to life the diverse tapestry of Canada's early frontiers Set against the backdrop of vast landscapes indigenous cultures and the burgeoning settlements of European pioneers Ralph employs a vivid literary style characterized by evocative imagery and a keen understanding of the human experience Through a series of compelling vignettes he captures the struggles triumphs and experiences of those who navigated the complexities of life on the frontier in the late 19th century placing emphasis on the socio political fabric of Canadian identity during this transformative period Julian Ralph was an acclaimed American journalist and author whose extensive travels and encounters with different cultures shaped his worldview and inspired his writing His deep curiosity about the untold stories of the Canadian frontier reflects not only his commitment to narrative journalism but also his desire to elevate the voices of those often overlooked in mainstream history Ralph's previous works and journalistic endeavors provided him with unique insights into the interplay of nature culture and civilization guiding his exploration of the Canadian experience This book is highly recommended for readers interested in the intersection of history and storytelling Ralph's engaging prose offers a captivating exploration of the frontier that is both informative and profoundly human making it an essential read for anyone wishing to grasp the complexities of Canada's past and the resilience of its people      Ghostly Campfire Stories of Western Canada Barbara Smith, 2018-05-11 Hair raising tales of ghosts spirits and unexplained phenomena set across Western Canada Praise for Campfire Stories of Western Canada Smith's spooky tales are perfect for warm summer nights spent around the campfire Her latest book of ghost stories focuses solely on Western Canada and is a wonderful fit for families looking for fun and spooky tales to tell under the stars Quirk Magazine In this delightful companion to the bestselling Campfire Stories of Western Canada Barbara Smith scours the spookiest corners of local folklore from Vancouver Island to the Canadian Rockies to the vast plains of the Prairies to bring readers a brand new collection of ghost stories Combining truth legend and a healthy dose of suspense Smith weaves together over thirty bone chilling tales perfectly suited for reading aloud on family camping trips or quiet nights at home Suitable for ages eight to eighty eight this frighteningly fun collection reveals the supernatural side of Western Canada      Great Canadian Ghost Stories Barbara Smith, 2018-10-30 A compelling collection of iconic ghost stories from all across Canada Time and place are infused with ghosts and hauntings From coast to coast to coast Canada's provinces and territories teem with the supernatural phantoms obscured in the mists of time spectres that delight in wreaking terror and spirits destined to linger forever at the edge of the veil Visit the far flung corners of Canada to discover the folklore and legends behind the ghost of a Newfoundland outlaw that leads blizzard blind men to safety A poltergeist infestation that gleefully tortured an entire Nova Scotia family A fleet of phantom ships that haunt the coastline of New Brunswick the haggard spectre of a murderous witch in historic Quebec City Saskatchewan's ghost ridden military cadet academy an Alberta cabbie's encounter with a silent shadow of a man in black the headless railway brakeman of Vancouver a moaning man shaped mist that haunts a Yukon cabin From east to west to way up north bestselling author and renowned storyteller Barbara Smith traverses Canada's provinces and territories to unearth more than 100 supernatural tales that careen between heartwarming horrifying sorrowful and spine chilling      The Royal Canadian Mounted Police - Stories from the Far North Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-04 The Royal Canadian Mounted Police RCMP is one of the most iconic and respected law enforcement agencies in the world For over 150 years the RCMP has played a vital role in protecting Canada and its people From its humble beginnings as the North West Mounted Police the RCMP has evolved into a modern professional police force that is responsible for policing everything from small towns to large cities and from the Arctic to the Pacific Ocean The RCMP is also responsible for a wide range of specialized services including national security border protection and drug enforcement The RCMP is a unique organization that is unlike any other police force in the world Its members are drawn from all walks of life and from all parts of Canada They are proud to serve their country and to uphold the law The RCMP has a long and distinguished history of service to Canada Its members have fought in wars protected the peace and helped to build the nation The RCMP is a symbol of Canadian identity and is an important part of the fabric of Canadian society In this book we will take a closer look at the RCMP We will explore its history its organization and its role in Canadian society We will also meet some of the men and women who serve in the RCMP and learn about their experiences Whether you are a Canadian or a visitor to Canada we hope that you will find this book to be an informative and enjoyable read If you like this book write a review on google books      Great Canadian War Stories Muriel Whitaker, 2001-10 Canada is renowned today for its role as a world peacekeeper However the country also played an important role in the wars of the twentieth century Great Canadian War Stories shows how Canada at war captured the imagination of fiction writers across the country The stories in this collection chronicle the scope of the Canadian war efforts in the twentieth century from Vimy Ridge to the plains of the Spanish Civil War to the skies over North Africa during World War II This collection includes selections from Timothy Findley Henry Kreisel Colin McDougall Thomas Raddell Joy Kogawa

Earle Birney and 16 others At once terrible and uplifting memorable and harrowing the stories in this collection describe a seminal period in Canadian history Great Canadian War Stories show us how Canada became a nation in the twentieth century

The Race and Other Stories by Sinclair Ross Sinclair Ross,1978-01-01 Heralded as a prairie writer and best known for As For Me and My House and for his stories of the bleak dust bowl Prairies of the Great Depression Sinclair Ross has also written of urban life and briefly of army life as the stories in this collection demonstrate The Race and Other Stories includes previously uncollected short stories and a chapter from Whirl of Gold here title The Race which stands on its own as a short story Furthermore Spike published in French in Liberté in 1969 appears here for the first time in English Ross's taut economical rhythmic prose reflects the bleak spare landscape of the prairie The concerns of his novels are equally evident in his stories loneliness and alienation the sense of entrapment the imaginative and artistic struggle This collection of stories will be of interest to those who wish to better understand one of Canada's most respected writers and the diversity that can be found in his writings

Telling Stories ,2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research
