Stories we live and grow by Muna Saleh, 2019-02-01 Interweaving my experiences as a Canadian Muslim woman mother grand daughter educator and scholar throughout this work I write about living and narratively inquiring Clandinin and Connelly Narrative Inquiry Clandinin alongside three Muslim mothers and daughters during our daughters transition into adolescence I was interested in mother and daughter experiences during this time of life transition because my eldest daughter Malak was in the midst of transitioning into adolescence as I embarked upon my doctoral research I had many wonders about Malak's experiences my experiences as a mother and the experiences of other Muslim daughters and mothers in the midst of similar life transitions I wondered about how dominant narratives from within and across Muslim and other communities in Canada shape our lives and experiences For while we are often storied as victims of various oppressions in media literature and elsewhere little is known about our diverse experiences particularly the experiences of Muslim mothers and daughters composing our selves and lives alongside one another in familial places      Engaging in Narrative Inquiry

D. Jean Clandinin, 2016-06-16 Narrative inquiry examines human lives through the lens of a narrative honoring lived experience as a source of important knowledge and understanding In this concise volume D Jean Clandinin one of the pioneers in using narrative as research updates her classic formulation on narrative inquiry with F Michael Connelly clarifying extending and refining the method based on an additional decade of work A valuable feature is the inclusion of several exemplary cases with the author's critique and analysis of the work The rise of interest in narrative inquiry in recent years makes this is an essential guide for researchers and an excellent text for graduate courses in qualitative inquiry
