Oriental dyeing process to obtain the lustrous colour known as Turkey Red was avidly sought by Europeans from the time before the fall of Ancient Rome It was finally cracked by the French about 1760 who were able to dye wool silk and cotton bright red After the lowlands of the Caspian Caucasus had been subdued by the Russians in the early 1800s madder was cultivated there and rapidly became the main crop The guest for Turkey Red went hand in hand with an avalanche of scientific research which not only improved the yield of dyestuff from the roots but led to its chemical synthesis and in 1870 the collapse of the world wide madder industry Many of the nascent dye companies grew into chemical giants of our time Further regional and cultural background may be found in Chenciner's Daghestan Tradition and Survival also published in the Caucasus World series No Path Home Elizabeth Cullen Dunn, 2018-01-15 For more than 60 million displaced people around the world humanitarian aid has become a chronic condition No Path Home describes its symptoms in detail Elizabeth Cullen Dunn shows how war creates a deeply damaged world in which the structures that allow people to occupy social roles constitute economic value preserve bodily integrity and engage in meaningful daily practice have been blown apart After the Georgian war with Russia in 2008 Dunn spent sixteen months immersed in the everyday lives of the 28 000 people placed in thirty six resettlement camps by official and nongovernmental organizations acting in concert with the Georgian government She reached the conclusion that the humanitarian condition poses a survival problem that is not only biological but also existential In No Path Home she paints a moving picture of the ways in which humanitarianism leaves displaced people in limbo neither in a state of emergency nor able to act as normal citizens in the country where they reside Mobilization and Empowerment in Georgia's Rose Revolution Kelli Hash-Gonzalez, 2012-10-18 While other studies explain the Rose Revolution in terms of the contribution of the power players Popular Mobilization and Empowerment in Georgia s Rose Revolution by Kelli Hash Gonzalez adds to our understanding of the event by examining it from the perspective of ordinary citizens Hash Gonzalez shows how the movement frames targeted people's emotions as well as their beliefs and values to more effectively mobilize them for action Using the election fraud as a focal point movement leaders and activists amplified the emotions and beliefs incorporated in the themes of injustice dignity and duty which supported movement participation They also appealed to people s emotions and beliefs in an effort to transform the common frame of political powerlessness which worked against participation The book also examines the role that emotional energy played in mobilization The achievement of a critical mass of protestors was surprising given the hopelessness cynicism and alienation in the region s political culture This level of participation was essential for movement emergence and success Without the people none of the other necessary factors NGOs civil society financial resources foreign support or interference the media government vulnerability political elites opposition unity could have achieved a legitimate regime change Popular Mobilization and Empowerment in Georgia's Rose Revolution is an in depth examination of a significant political moment from the perspective of the people who lived it Small Nations and Great Powers Svante Cornell,2005-06-28 A thorough in depth analysis of the current and potential conflicts in the Caucasus including the geographical historical and ethno linguistic framework of the Caucasus the individual conflicts and the place of the Caucasus in world affairs A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies revised and updated for Parameters ,1999 Potentials of disorder Jan Koehler, Christoph this second edition first published in 2002 Zuercher, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book deals with the institutional framework in post socialist after empire spaces It consists of nine case studies and two contributions of a more theoretical nature Each of these analytical narratives sheds some light on the micro politics of organised violence After 1990 Serbs and Croats were competing over access to the resources needed for institution building and state building Fear in turn triggered ethnic mobilisation An unprofessional riot of Serbs in the Krajina region developed into a professional war between Serbs and Croats in Croatia in which several thousand died and several hundred thousand people were forcefully expelled from their homes. The Herceg Bosnian style of resistance can be surprisingly effective It is known that most of the heroin transported along the Balkans route passes through the hands of Albanian mafia groups that this traffic has taken off since summer 1999 The concept of Staatnation is based on the doctrine according to which each nation must have its own territorial State and each State must consist of one nation only The slow decline and eventual collapse of the Soviet and the Yugoslav empires was partly triggered partly accompanied by the guest for national sovereignty Dagestan is notable for its ethnic diversity and even by post Soviet standards its dramatic economic deprivation The integrative potential of cooperative movements at the republican the regional and the inter state level for the Caucasus is analyzed The book also offers insights into the economics of ending violence Finally it addresses the question of reconciliation after ethnic cleansing
