Story And Promise A Brief Theology Of The Gospel About Jesus:

Story and Promise Robert W. Jenson, 2014-12-02 The respected American theologian Robert Jenson here in brief compass presents his uncluttered understanding of the Christian message in a form ideal for beginning students laypeople and clergy Professor Jenson sees the heart of the gospel as the unconditional promise of the ultimate triumph of the love of Jesus of Nazareth This gospel is based on the story of Jesus and is worked out in the lives of men and of nations as the promise it brings moves towards fulfillment Story and Promise we dare to call it a one volume dogmatics leaves no element of the Christian faith untouched the classical doctrines concerning God Christ the Holy Spirit man the church the clearly radical implications of these doctrines for personal and social transformation the focus of Christian vision on the future as the time when God comes and man becomes what God intends This book clarifies the traditional problems of faith and also raises the revolutionary issues marking the end of this century It is a thoughtful and satisfying piece of systematic theology in a time of shattered understandings of the faith

The Gospel in the Western Context Gert-Jan Roest, 2018-10-02 In The Gospel in the Western Context Gert Jan Roest focuses on discerning a Western contextual gospel an endeavour that is very relevant to the current state of Christianity in the postmodern and post Christendom West After giving an in depth analysis and synthesis of how Hendrikus Berkhof and Colin Gunton read the Western context and contextualize their Christology he develops a gospel centred model for reading the context Meanwhile he makes a creative and much needed attempt to connect the two disciplines of systematic theology and missiology and convincingly shows that both disciplines cannot only enrich one another but also can give church practitioners insight and wisdom for their tasks Mission Shaped by Promise

Jukka A. Kaariainen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God

Humility, Pride, and Christian Virtue Theory Kent Dunnington, 2019 Humility Pride and Christian Virtue Theory proposes an account of humility that relies on the most radical Christian sayings about humility especially those found in Augustine and the early monastic tradition It argues that this was the view of humility that put Christian moral thought into decisive conflict with the best Greco Roman moral thought This radical Christian account of humility has been forgotten amidst contemporary efforts to clarify and retrieve the virtue of humility for secular life Kent Dunnington shows how humility was repurposed during the early modern era particularly in the thought of Hobbes Hume and Kant to better serve the economic and social needs of the emerging modern state This repurposed humility insisted on a role for proper pride alongside humility as a necessary constituent of self esteem and a necessary motive of consistent moral action over time Contemporary philosophical accounts of humility continue this emphasis on proper pride as a counterbalance to humility By contrast radical Christian humility proscribes pride altogether Dunnington demonstrates how such a radical view need not give rise to vices of humility such as servility and pusillanimity nor need such a view fall prey to feminist critiques of humility But the view of humility set forth makes little sense abstracted from a specific set of doctrinal commitments peculiar to Christianity This study argues that this is a strength rather than a weakness of the account since it displays how Christianity matters for the shape of the moral life

Divine Simplicity and the Triune Identity Jonathan M. Platter,2021-07-05

There has been a recent revival of interest in the doctrine of divine simplicity in systematic and philosophical theology following decades of intense reflection on the tri personhood of the Christian God While recent studies have produced a greater appreciation of patristic and scholastic theologies they have not yet engaged in dialogue with proponents of the trinitarian revival that emerged in the latter half of the twentieth century in anything other than polemical terms This book offers a theological defense of the doctrine of divine simplicity through careful reading of both exemplary historical theologians and Robert W Jenson an important American contributor to the trinitarian revival After tracing continuities and discontinuities amongst select historical theologians the book approaches Jenson with a multivalent account of divine simplicity The result is a more nuanced interpretation of Jenson s theology an account of divine simplicity that responds to perceived problems and new constructive proposals for divine simplicity in trinitarian theology

Theologians on Scripture Angus Paddison,2016-11-03 The movement that is known as theological interpretation of Scripture reminds us that the reading and exegesis of Scripture is an indispensable part of the theologian s work not to be reserved to biblical scholars alone This insight that the reading of Scripture is a theological responsibility is always at risk of being eclipsed by the modern disciplinary divisions between biblical studies historical theology and systematic theology Intended as a contribution to the theological re engagement with Scripture this book invites a range of high profile systematic and constructive theologians to reflect on the role that the reading and interpretation of Scripture plays in their theological work both professionally and more personally Spanning a cross section of theological perspectives contributors reflect on the role of tradition in their reading of Scripture the company they view as indispensable in their engagement with the text the place of historical critical study and biblical studies and the significance of their context The book will be valued by all those who care for the place of Scripture in theology and the life of the church as well as those who want an insight into the state of contemporary theology

Image of the Holy Spirit and the Church Stephen W. Hiemstra,2023-12-18 If the Bible is an outreach document written by and for missionaries then the Holy Spirit is the instrument of that evangelical call The Image of the Holy Spirit and the Church examines the Bible's description of the Holy Spirit from before Pentecost and the call the church in view of current challenges Image of the Holy Spirit and the Church is written in a devotional format with a reflection prayers and questions for study Hear the Words Walk the Steps Experience the Joy Saying Is Believing Amanda Hontz Drury,2015-03-06 What if our view of testimony is all wrong Integrating sociological analysis and theological reflection Amanda Drury presents testimony as not merely something that describes what happened in the past but as an essential practice for Christian spiritual formation especially for adolescents in the process of developing their identity Faith, Hope, and Love in the Technological Society Franz A. Foltz,Frederick A. Foltz,2018-07-31 Franz and Frederick Foltz examine how modern technology creates an environment that significantly affects Christianity by reducing the mysteries of faith to manageable techniques The body of their work analyzes the effects of technology on the theological virtues of faith hope and love the triad that believers have used for a common narrative to understand and express their thoughts and experiences They begin by looking at how recent developments have brought us into a post truth era by removing words from their context in nature time place and community Popular theologies such as the power of positive thinking the laws of creation the plan for salvation and the prosperity gospel reflect this change by gearing all for efficiently getting what we want and ignoring tradition The authors then examine each of the virtues separately finding that faith has become a risk management tool that depends on confidence in systems rather than personal relationships hope is defined as the expectation that our present desires shall be granted rather than a vision of the future and love has become an intimacy that provides escape from the real world and community rather than a self denying care for them Finally the authors take a look at some appropriate responses The Doctrine of God and the Crisis of Modernity Jared Michelson,2025-05-15 In this incisive work Michelson traces contemporary debates on the doctrine of God back in time to the philosophical critiques of Hume and Kant Schleiermacher and Barth each offered accounts of the doctrine of God This book offers a critical evaluation of these accounts and demonstrates how they were responding to early modern critiques of the possibility of knowing God Michelson also leverages Charnock's account constructively to demonstrate how this earlier writer has the theological resources to tackle those same critiques Not content to stop there Michelson also highlights how these critics built their arguments on faulty interpretations of classical theological tradition In doing so this book carves out a provocative constructive path forward for contemporary theological reflection on the doctrine of God Augustine and the Environment John Doody,Kim Paffenroth,Mark Smillie,2016-09-30 This volume brings into dialogue the ancient wisdom of Augustine of Hippo a bishop of the early Christian Church of the fourth and fifth centuries with contemporary theologians and ethicists on the topic of the environment and humanity's place in and responsibility to it The contributors vary widely in their estimation of how sustained and useful such a dialogue might be from outright dismissal of the church father to extended speculation with him and in his spirit Their conclusions impact our views of God and both human and non human creation Such engagement should influence any future discussion of how Christianity and environmentalism can interact or influence one another Creation and Salvation: A companion on recent theological movements E. M. Conradie,2012 Christians trying to save the planet have to relate creation with salvation This volume explores the ways in which this task is approached by a wide range of recent theological movements Trinitarian Ontology and Israel in Robert W. Jenson's Theology Sang Hoon Lee,2016-11-02

Can Christian theology overcome its long standing supersessionism without diluting its Trinitarian faith Can Christian faith remain genuinely Christian when it fails to recognize the covenantal significance of the Jews In his later career leading Trinitarian theologian Robert Jenson s theology moves in a post supersessionistic direction That said the conceptual nexus between his Trinitarian theology and his post supersessionism is not always patent on the surface of his texts In this book Lee traces the post supersessionistic development of Jenson s Trinitarian theology and uncovers the reasons why Jenson s Trinitarian theology sets out to embrace the existence of the Jews This book seeks to show that Jenson s revisionary historicized carnalized hermeneutical and eschatological Trinitarian ontology allows for genuine confession of the eternal triune God as the God of Israel and that it thereby lays a firm basis for a properly Christian post supersessionism Sola

Scriptura Sacramentaque Charles Meeks,2021-03-29 The practice of the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist allow Christians to read Scripture in the context of the church and in unity with the Trinity Charles Meeks argues here however that over the centuries since the Reformation Protestant expressions of the church have often allowed the sacraments to assume a minor role that has led to a weakening of Protestant ecclesiology and a disconnection of these ancient rituals from the gospel To unpack this reality Meeks relies on the work of fourth century bishop Hilary of Poitiers and modern theologian Robert W Jenson to examine the relationship between the sacraments and Scripture the Trinity and the church With Hilary he retrieves a hermeneutic that starts from the interdependence of the sacraments with all aspects of Christian life especially the way one reads Scripture formulates theology and understands what the church is and is not With Jenson Meeks applies this hermeneutic to the modern church in an appeal to recover a premodern sense of God s relationship to time and thus how the church relates to God through Word and Sacrament The Holy Spirit in the Christian Life Cheryl M.

Peterson,2024-03-19 The Holy Spirit in the Christian Life offers a brief account of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit focusing specifically on the question of the person and work of the Spirit in the Christian life Lutheran theologian Cheryl Peterson identifies three key movements of the Christian life showing the Spirit s role in each justification God the Holy Spirit working for us sanctification God the Holy Spirit working in us and mission God the Holy Spirit working through us Peterson explores scriptural and doctrinal perspectives on the person and work of the Holy Spirit especially from churches with Reformation roots in view of contemporary spiritual movements including the spiritual but not religious and the Pentecostal and charismatic movements In addition she explores the means of the Spirit s work through Word sacrament and spiritual gifts

Hardness of Heart in Biblical Literature Charles B. Puskas,2022-09-13 Every speaker teacher or preacher has on some occasion encountered an audience that was unreceptive to what he or she had to say One response to such communication breakdowns given by both the Old Testament prophets and New Testament authors was to declare that the hearers have hardened their hearts to the message or that God has hardened them What is this hardness of heart phenomenon Who became hardened and why Was it a result of some deficiency in communication What were the consequences of such a disposition Is there any hope for a change of perspective for those hardened In this concise and carefully argued volume Charles Puskas considers all the key texts relating to human obstinacy towards God in pursuit of answers to these questions

Reforming the Doctrine of God F. LeRon Shults,2005-11 Linking traditional attributes of God with contemporary philosophy F LeRon Shults culminates with a reformed doctrine of God that revolves around themes of God s omniscient faithfulness omnipotent love and omnipresent hope

Narrative and the Triune Reality Wai Luen Kwok,2022-05-13 Robert Jenson is commended as one of the greatest American theologians in the twentieth century This book proposes a critique of Jenson s narrative Trinitarianism by comparing it with Eberhard Jungel s theology It argues for the importance of the double dimensions of event and communicative linguistics of the Divine narrative

Justification in a Post-Christian Society Carl-Henric Grenholm,Goran Gunner,2015-03-26 Since the Reformation in the sixteenth century Lutheran traditions have impacted culture and politics in many societies At the same time Lutheran belief has had an effect on personal faith morality and ethics Modern society however is quite different from that at the time of the Reformation How should we evaluate Lutheran tradition in today s Western multicultural and post Christian society Is it possible to develop a Lutheran theological position that can be regarded as reasonable in a society that evidences a considerable weakening of the role of Christianity What are the challenges raised by cultural diversity for a Lutheran theology and ethics Is it possible to develop a Lutheran identity in a multicultural society and is there any fruitful Lutheran contribution to the coexistence of different religious and non religious traditions in the future

Free Churches and the Body of Christ Jeffrey W. Cary,2012-11-05 Those within the free church tradition have often appealed to the notion of the invisible church to account for the unity of the Body of Christ A growing number of free church theologians however are giving increased attention to the importance of visible ecclesial unity which immediately raises the perennial problem of the authorities by which unity is maintained There is also a growing recognition among free church theologians of the need to recognize the authority of tradition in tandem with the authority of Scripture In this book Cary affirms these recent developments but then inquires whether a turn toward visible unity together with an embrace of the authority of tradition can eventually be coherent without also embracing the authority of an extra congregational teaching office To guide his study Cary engages the work of two theologians from outside the free church tradition Robert Jenson and Rowan Williams He then brings them into contact with the prominent free church theologian James McClendon in order to supplement some of the deficiencies Cary perceives in McClendon's groundbreaking work. Once these deficiencies are addressed, however, the question intensifies whether the free church tradition as such can remain a coherent ecclesial option over time.
