

The background of the entire cover is a dramatic, dark painting of a stormy sea. In the upper left, a white rectangular box contains the text 'signum CLASSICS'. The title 'STURM UND DRANG' is written in large white letters across the middle, followed by a large yellow number '3'. In the bottom right corner, the text 'THE MOZARTISTS' and 'IAN PAGE' is visible. The painting depicts a turbulent sea with dark, jagged rocks in the foreground. Several ships are visible: one large ship is partially submerged and tilted in the middle ground, while others are further away in the distance. The sky is dark and stormy, with a bright light source breaking through the clouds in the upper center, creating a dramatic contrast. The overall mood is one of intense drama and conflict.

Heredity, Race, and the Birth of the Modern Sara Eigen Figal,2010-04-15 This book places under sustained scrutiny some of our most basic modern assumptions about inheritance genealogy blood relations and racial categories It has at its core a deceptively simple question one too often taken for granted what constitutes good bonds among humans and what compels us to determine them so across generations as both a physical and a metaphysical attribute Answering this question is complex and involves a foray into a seemingly disparate array of early modern sources from adages common law and literature about bloodlines and bastardy to philosophical political and scientific discourses that both confirm and confound the common sense of familial communal national and racial identity
