The Arts of China 900-1620 William Watson,2000-01-01 This beautiful book is the second in a major three volume series that will survey China's immense wealth of art architecture and artefacts from prehistoric times to the twentieth century It covers the most prolific and broad ranging period of Chinese art history from the Song Dynasty with its spectacular landscape paintings to the Ming Dynasty with its lovely pottery William Watson considers architecture painting sculpture and the decorative arts in equal balance He follows styles and motifs as they are developed in each medium from one province to another and discusses materials and techniques as well as the iconography and function of every art form He also explores relationships between one medium and another tracing for example the influence of Buddhist iconography on sculptural traditions and on the architecture of temples and towers and showing how ceramic ornament affected the development of ornament in other media

Contemporary Chinese Art

Jeanne Boden,2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and

Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden com Cover picture
