Styles And Structures Alternative Approaches To College Writing:

Styles and Structures Charles Kay Smith, 1974 Paul's Literary Style Áida Besançon Spencer, 2007 Paul's Literary style is a groundbreaking stylistics study of the apostle Paul's varying style of written communications to different audiences. He writes as a warrior to the antagonistic Corinthians, a parent to the receptive Philippians, and a diplomat to the distant Romans. Cover p. 4 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 A Richard Wright Bibliography Kenneth Kinnamon, Joseph Benson, Michel Fabre, Craig Werner, 1988-01-13 Any future biographical work on Richard Wright will find this bibliography a necessity; academic or public libraries supporting a program of Black culture will find it invaluable, and it belongs in any library supporting American literature studies. Richard Wright has truly been well served. Choice: The most comprehensive bibliography ever compiled for an American writer; this book contains 13,117 annotated items pertaining to Richard Wright. It includes almost all published mentions of the author or his work in every language in which those mentions appear. Sources listed include books, articles, reviews, notes, news items, publishers' catalogs, promotional materials, book jackets, dissertations and theses, encyclopedias, biographical dictionaries, handbooks, and study guides, library reports, best-seller charts, the Index Translationum, playbills, and advertisements, editorials, radio transcripts, and published letters and interviews. The bibliography is arranged chronologically by year. Each entry includes bibliographical information, an annotation by the authors, and information about all reprintings, partial or full. The index is unusually complete and contains the titles of Wright's works, real and fictional characters in the works, entries relating to significant places and events in the author's life, important literary terminology, and much additional information.
