Subject Determination During The Cataloging Process:

Subject Determination During the Cataloging Process Alenka Šauperl, 2002 Drawing on case studies shadowing the work of a dozen catalogers Šauperl library and information science and publishing U of Ljubljana Slovenia identifies the processes by which they interpret document topics and distinguishes between subject cataloging and indexing She concludes that the profession is a difficult one due to complex explicit and unwritten rules and practices Even more daunting may be conveying to students the passion and values that such work encompasses Taylor is with the School of Information Sciences at the U of Pittsburgh PA Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Introduction to Cataloging and

Classification Daniel N. Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, David P. Miller, 2015-09-29 A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn't presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA's Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter The Organization of Information Daniel N. Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, 2017-11-27 This fourth edition provides an updated look at information organization featuring coverage of the Semantic Web linked data and EAC CPF new metadata models such as IFLA LRM and RiC and new perspectives on RDA and its implementation This latest edition of The Organization of Information is a key resource for anyone in the beginning stages of their LIS career as well as longstanding professionals and paraprofessionals seeking accurate clear and up to date guidance on information organization activities across the discipline The book begins with a historical look at information organization methods covering libraries archives museums and online settings It then addresses the types of retrieval tools used throughout the discipline catalogs finding aids indexes bibliographies and search engines before describing the functionality of systems explaining the basic principles of system design and defining how they affect information organization The principles and functionality of metadata is next with coverage of the types functions tools and models particularly FRBR IFLA LRM RDF and how encoding works for use and sharing for example MARC XML schemas and linked data approaches The latter portion of the resource describes specific activities related to the creation of metadata for resources These chapters offer an overview of the major issues challenges and standards used in the information professions addressing topics such as resource description including standards found in RDA DACS and CCO access points authority control subject analysis controlled vocabularies notably LCSH MeSH Sears and AAT and categorization systems such as DDC and LCC

The Organization of Information Arlene G. Taylor, Daniel N. Joudrey, 2008-12-23 This third edition of Taylor's modern classic continues to articulate the theory principles standards and tools behind information organization As with previous editions it begins with strong justification for the continued importance of organizing principles and practice Following a broad overview of the concept and its role in human endeavors Taylor and Joudrey provide a detailed and insightful discussion of such basic retrieval tools as inventories bibliographies catalogs indexes finding aids registers databases major bibliographic utilities and other organizing entities and subsequently trace the development of the organization of recorded information in Western civilization from 2000 B C E to the present Standards of codification MARC SGML and various DTDs controlled vocabularies and ontologies and Web 2 0 technologies are but a sample of its extensive topical coverage The Organization of Information remains the title of choice for students and professionals eager to embrace the heritage immediacy and future of this fascinating field of study

Introduction to Technical Services G. Edward Evans, Sheila S. Intner, Jean Weihs, 2010-11-11 Used in library schools worldwide this standard text provides students with a thorough understanding of technical services Updated and expanded the eighth edition further emphasizes the rapidly changing environment in which technical services are conducted The book covers all aspects of the field from acquisitions to managing the cataloging department with five new chapters Technical Services Issues includes material related to physical space needs E resources Issues examines how the growth of e materials impact technical services work Copy Cataloging reflects the ever increasing need to be more efficient and also to save limited funds for technical services activities Overview and Decisions addresses the issue of why and how the local OPAC has become a gateway to the universe of knowledge and Processing Materials covers the activities involved in making sure items that go into a library's collection are properly identified as belonging to the library and where the item is physically located in the collection All other chapters have been extensively rewritten and updated to reflect 2010 technical service functions and activities Complete with helpful illustrations statistics and study guide questions this text is a must for library and information science students

New Directions in Information Organization Jung-ran Park, Lynne C. Howarth, 2013-07-19 New Directions in Information Organization co edited by Dr Jung ran Park and Dr Lynne Howarth seeks to provide an overview and understanding of the future directions leading edge theories and models for research and practice in information organization

Functional Future for Bibliographic Control Shawne D. Miksa, 2017-07-05 The quest to evolve bibliographic control to an equal or greater standing within the current information environment is on going As information organizers we are working in a time where information and communication technology ICT has pushed our status quo to its limits and where innovation often needs the pressure of do or die in order to get started The year 2010 was designated as the Year of Cataloging Research and we made progress on studying the challenges facing metadata and information organization practices However one year of research is merely a drop in the bucket especially given the results of the Resource and Description and Access RDA National Test and the Library of Congress decision to investigate the possibility of transitioning the MARC21 format This book addresses how information professionals can create a functional environment in which we move beyond just representing information resources and into an environment that both represents and connects at a deeper level Most importantly it offers insight on transitioning into new communities of practice and awareness by reassessing our purpose re charting our efforts reasserting our expertise in the areas that information organizer have traditionally claimed but are losing due to stagnation and lack of vision This book was published as a double special issue of the Journal of Library Metadata

Information Literacy in the Workplace Serap Kurbanoglu, Joumana Boustany, Sonja Špiranec, Esther Grassian, Diane Mizrachi, Lorie Roy, 2018-01-25 This book constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the 5th European Conference on Information Literacy ECIL 2017 held in Saint Malo France in September 2017 The 84 revised papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 358 submissions The papers cover a wide range of topics in the field of information literacy and focus on information literacy in the workplace They are organized in the following topical sections workplace information literacy employability and career readiness data literacy and research data management media literacy copyright literacy transliteracy reading literacy digital literacy financial literacy search engine literacy civic literacy science literacy health information literacy information behavior information literacy in higher education information literacy in K 12 information literacy instruction information literacy and libraries and theoretical framework

Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Arlene G. Taylor, David Peter Miller, 2006 Offers a practical guide to the world of cataloguing and classification This work also addresses such issues as FRBR Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FAST Faceted Application of Subject Terminology and the Semantic Web

Information Resource Description Philip Hider, 2012-11-23 An overview of the field of information organization that examines resource description as both a product and process of the contemporary digital environment This timely book employs the unifying mechanism of the semantic web and the resource description framework to integrate the various traditions and practices of information and knowledge organization Uniquely it covers both the domain specific traditions and practices and the practices of the metadata movement through a single lens that of resource description in the broadest semantic web sense This approach more readily accommodates coverage of the new Resource Description and Access RDA standard which aims to move library cataloguing into the centre of the semantic web The work surrounding RDA looks set to revolutionise the field of information organization and this book will bring both the standard and its model and concepts into focus Key topics include information resource attributes metadata for information retrieval metadata sources and quality economics and management of metadata knowledge organization systems the semantic web books and e books websites and audiovisual resources business and government documents learning resources the field of information knowledge organization Readership LIS students taking information organization courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels information professionals wishing to specialise in the metadata area and existing metadata specialists who wish to update their knowledge
