Submarine Seahawk:

Eye on Science Fiction Tom Weaver, 2007-04-23 The march of the monster movie makers continues in Tom Weaver's ninth book of in depth interviews with the men and women who made the horror and sci fi favorites of the 1940s 50s and 60s Actors including Mike Connors Brett Halsey Natalie Trundy and Richard Kiel writers producers and directors recall legendary genre figures Lugosi Chaney Jr Tod Browning and James Whale films ranging in quality from The Thing to Macumba Love and Eegah behind the scenes tales of cult TV series Twilight Zone Batman Lost in Space more and serials and of course the usual barrage of outlandish movie menaces this time including the Fly Flesh Eaters Monolith Monsters ape men voodoo women and spider babies And all in the candid no holds barred style that has made Weaver king of the interviewers Classic Images American International Pictures Rob Craig, 2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways

the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company Film Composers in America Clifford McCarty, 2000 Film Composers in America is a landmark in the history of film Here renowned film scholar Clifford McCarty has attempted to identify every known composer who wrote background musical scores for films in the United States between 1911 and 1970 With information on roughly 20 000 films the book is an essential tool for serious students of film and a treasure trove for film fans It spans all types of American films from features shorts cartoons and documentaries to nontheatrical works avant garde films and even trailers Meticulously researched over 45 years the book documents the work of more than 1 500 composers from Robert Abramson to Josiah Zuro including the first to score an American film Walter C Simon It includes not only Hollywood professionals but also many composers of concert music as well as popular music and other genres whose cinematic work has never before been fully catalogued The book also features an index that lets readers quickly find the composer for any American film through 1970 To recover this history much of which was lost or never recorded McCarty corresponded with or interviewed hundreds of composers arrangers orchestrators musical directors and music librarians He also conducted extensive research in the archives of the seven largest film studios Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th Century Fox Universal and Warner Bros and wherever possible he based his findings on the most reliable evidence that of the manuscript scores and cue sheets as opposed to less accurate screen credits The result is the definitive guide to the composers and musical scores for the first 60 years of American film When Eagles Dared Howard Hughes, 2012-01-30 When Eagles Dared is a salute to the men and women who participated in World War II and the filmmakers who have immortalised their stories on screen. It tells both the story of the historical events of this first truly world war and of the films that have depicted these events, comparing the cinematic myth with the historical reality as a guide to history through cinema. When Eagles Dared portrays the people who participated in the war from the evacuation of the Allied forces from France at Dunkirk through to the battle for Berlin and beyond. Each chapter discusses a theatre of war, an event, a campaign or battle by explaining the historical events as they unfold and then examines how filmmakers have represented them. Chapters discuss the war in the skies, Battle of Britain and The Dam Busters, the sea, Sink the Bismarck and The Cruel Sea, and the North African desert, The Battle of El Alamein and Tobruk. There are special mission movies including Where Eagles Dare and The Dirty Dozen, classic tales of ingenuity, The Great Escape, valour, Saving Private Ryan, and human endurance, The Bridge on the River Kwai. Offering a unique view of war through the lenses of over 150 diverse films that have shaped our perceptions of the conflict, When Eagles Dared is illustrated with rare stills and posters from this ever popular genre.

Notes from a 12 Man Mark Tye Turner, 2010-06-01. The perfect gift for the Twelfth Man in any household, here is a fun and funny fan's history of the Seattle Seahawks. Since the franchise's beginnings more than 30 years ago, there's no doubt who has been the greatest member of the Seattle Seahawks. After all, who was there at the opening of the Kingdome only to watch that fabled stadium years later turn to dust? Who endured the embarrassment of The Boz? And who was there during Super Bowl XL to witness the team lose to the game officials? Oh yeah, that's right. We, the twelfth man, were there. Living up to our reputation as some of the loudest, most supportive fans in the NFL, Notes from a 12 Man isn't just the team's history; it's our history. Author Mark Tye Turner, a television writer who's been a twelfth man since Day One, tells it like it is and in obsessive detail. This book will make you laugh, wince, cheer, and learn everything you ever need to know about the team and then some.

Long Ago and Far Away Robert Fyne, 2008-05-20. The Second World War was the greatest social, political, and economic upheaval of the 20th century. As a popular Hollywood subject, WWII still enthralls viewers six decades after Allied commanders affixed their signatures on the victory document in Tokyo Bay. Recreating flag-waving charges, frontal beachhead assaults, commando raids, and even home front heroics, these motion pictures for better or worse provide the primary learning experience for postwar generations. After scrutinizing hundreds of screenplays, Robert Fyne has written an in-depth study of World War II films, analyzing the different storylines, points of view, and contemporary events found in each. In Long Ago and Far Away, Hollywood and the Second World War, Fyne examines WWII films from 1941 to the present, explaining how the content and mood in these productions paralleled national mores and politics. Some titles are laudatory, even chauvinistic, while others are frivolous or sophomoric. Biographical screenplays both glorify and damn various leaders. Some films bombard viewers with horrific experiences, while others, such as goofy science fiction titles with their wraiths and flying saucers, seem inappropriate. Love stories are examined as well as films revealing Japanese prisoner-of-war deprivations and Nazi concentration camp atrocities. From Above and Beyond to

Zone Troopers and The Best Years of Our Lives to Flags of Our Fathers this is a compelling look at how filmmakers have dramatized this pivotal period in history For historians movie watchers or social commentators Long Ago and Far Away complete with an elaborate filmography offers new information about Hollywood s diverse interpretations of the Good War
