Doris Lessing and Sufi Equilibrium S. Fahim, 1994-07-12 The purpose of this study is to examine the rationale of Doris Lessing s development from Classical Realism to mysticism and forms of science fiction and to consider the unifying motifs that appear throughout her novels in her consistent search for Sufi Equilibrium The four novels selected in this study represent significant stages in Lessing s work Chapter one focuses on The Grass is Singing which represents the author s early traditionally realistic writing to show how far the preoccupations of Lessing s later novels find expression in this early work Chapter two studies The Golden Notebook which marks a turning point in formal structure in Lessing s canon and is selected as evidence of her interest in Sufism at that early stage Chapter three concentrates on the study of The Memoirs of a Survivor which has elicited a comparatively limited amount of criticism but which proves to be a major achievement when brought into line with Sufi methods of writing Chapter four considers Lessing s science fiction series Canopus in Argos tracing sources from Oriental literature a key which unlocks many areas of obscurity

Doris Lessing Susan Watkins, 2013-07-19 This study examines the writing career of the respected and prolific novelist Doris Lessing who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2007 and has recently published what she has announced will be her final novel Whereas earlier assessments have focused on Lessing's relationship with feminism and the impact of her 1962 novel The Golden Notebook this book argues that Lessing's writing was formed by her experiences of the colonial encounter it makes use of postcolonial theory and criticism to examine Lessing's continued interest in ideas of nation empire gender and race and the connections between them The book examines the entire range of her writing including her most recent fiction and non fiction which have been comparatively neglected The book is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students of Doris Lessing's work as well as the general reader who enjoys her writing This is the first significant book length critical evaluation in ten years

The Span of Mainstream and Science Fiction Peter Brigg, 2015-09-16 From the 1960s when the advent of what many call the postmodern style made establishing genres more difficult to the present day writers have been incorporating science not only the commonly thought of science and technology but also the soft sciences such as psychology and sociology into what was previously considered mainstream fiction This book examines works by Thomas Pynchon Doris Lessing and others who incorporate science in fiction and exemplify the movement of mainstream fiction writers toward a new genre termed span It also examines works by some science fiction writers who are edging closer to the border of science fiction and slowly over into span This book maps the boundaries of the new span genre of fiction and thus helps define texts that fall outside the realms of mainstream and science fiction Diagrams are included and a bibliography and index

In Pursuit of Doris Lessing Claire Sprague, 1990-06-14 The phenomenon of Doris Lessing's global reputation and readership is addressed for the first time in In Pursuit of Doris Lessing through a series of essays that also provide a provocative overview of Lessing's long career from The Grass Is Singing the first of a series of African and woman centered politically radical works to her latest galactic and politically conservative works Nine different Lessings emerge from these essays forcing us to question received propositions about the universality of literature and the stability of the text and uncovering and recovering in the process the pungent variable controversial Lessing who has been and remains as international and transcultural as she is African and English
