

Here the destruction is subtle, and there the body is torn.
Here the breaking is perceived, and there the dead unaware carry their putrid remains. All trade in filth, carry their filth one to another, all walk the streets as though the ground did not recoil, all stretch their necks to bite the air, as though the breath had not withdrawn. The seed bursts without a blessing, and the harvest is gathered as if it were food.

Subtle Destruction:

Subtle Suicide Michael A. Church, Charles I. Brooks, 2009-07-23 This volume offers a description and analysis of subtle suicide a psychological condition whose victims don't care if they live or die and thus act in self-defeating self-damaging ways. Over their extensive careers, psychotherapists Michael Church and Charles Brooks have developed the concept of subtle suicide a development of risky behavior where the subject does not care if he/she lives or dies. Now in this urgent and informative new work, Church and Brooks present their findings on a condition that is often misdiagnosed as a symptom of addictive or mood disorders when in fact subtle suicide is the real underlying problem. Based on thousands of hours of sessions with real clients and filled with dramatic case studies, Subtle Suicide: Our Silent Epidemic of Ambivalence about Living will help professionals, families, and friends to realize when someone may be suffering from subtle suicide. The authors also provide a number of strategies for helping those exhibiting subtle suicidal behavior, including how to react to specific types of comments and how to avoid being pulled into the sufferer's emotional whirlpool. Meals That Heal Inflammation,

The Wonder of All That Is Stephen Stuart, 2009-09 The concept for this story was provided by an artist friend of ours whose creation Gentle Persuasion ignited a spark of an idea in Steve for a tale of innocence and hope He proposed it to the artist and suggested she ask writer friends of hers to consider the project Her reply along with my support was to convince Steve to accept the challenge and after much cajoling he accepted It turned into a mission lasting over one year and the result I feel is definitely worth the wait This is a story of sensitivity pathos and humor as told through the charmingly simple narrative of Bean a benevolent and immortal spirit while at the same time involving the reader in complex thought provoking voyages into political religious social and historical arenas It is a heartbreaking tale of a young lad stricken with the malady of autism and of his family s sincere love and commitment to his plight It is a tale seasoned with the introduction of a group of characters who have left their imprint either directly or indirectly on the life of that boy and hopefully on the reader The story has been read by many people in all walks of life and encompassing diverse interests While the reviews varied as one would imagine the major consensus of the feedback has been wildly enthusiastic I laughed I cried you made me think about things I haven t thought of before this comment although paraphrased any number of times has been received from both male and female readers alike This is the author s first novel His background has been in the arts where he won awards as a graphic designer dabbled with sculpture illustration interior design and jewelry design and as an award winning advertising photographer which was his main occupation for thirty one years Prior to writing this novel Steve had garnered a respected reputation as well as numerous awards as a scrimshander until problems with his eyesight put an end to that endeavor The story of Bean and Ricky is a compilation of his vivid imagination off times cynical sense of humor personal experience and research succinctly gathered over a lifetime of keen observation I sincerely believe that Bean is the embodiment of Steve s thoughts and beliefs and while espousing pessimism Steve is definitely a closet optimist Mary Ann Smania Stuart BS MA MS PhD World s Who s Who of Women International Who s Who of Intellectuals and wife 2009
