Keaveney, 2004-08-13 An examination of whether Chinese writers of the Creation Society a Chinese literary coterie successfully appropriated shishosetsu a quintessentially Japanese form of autobiographical narrative into a form to be exploited for their own ends especially political ends The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature

Li-Hua Ying, 2010 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature Ming Dong Gu, 2018-09-03 The

Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature presents a comprehensive overview of Chinese literature from the 1910s to the present day Featuring detailed studies of selected masterpieces it adopts a thematic comparative approach By developing an innovative conceptual framework predicated on a new theory of periodization it thus situates Chinese literature in the context of world literature and the forces of globalization Each section consists of a series of contributions examining the major literary genres including fiction poetry essay drama and film Offering an exciting account of the century long process of literary modernization in China the handbook s themes include Modernization of people and writing Realism romanticism and modernist aesthetics Chinese literature on the stage and screen Patriotism war and revolution Feminism liberalism and socialism Literature of reform reflection and experimentation Literature of Taiwan Hong Kong and new media This handbook provides an integration of biographical narrative with textual analysis maintaining a subtle balance between comprehensive overview and in depth examination As such it is an essential reference guide for all students and scholars of Chinese literature Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2021-11-15 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature      Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li,2011-02-18 The focus of this study is coming of age in troubled Cultural Revolutionary times as portrayed in contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua along with a comprehensive overview of the Bildungsroman in China and the west      Belief, History and the Individual in Modern Chinese Literary Culture Artur K. Wardega,2009-03-26 A value system in constant change a longing for stability amid uncertainties about the future a new consciousness about the unlimited challenges and aspirations in modern life these are themes in modern Chinese literature that attract the attention of overseas readers as well as its domestic audience They also provide Chinese and foreign literary researchers with complex questions about human life and achievements that search beyond national identities for global interaction and exchange This volume presents ten outstanding essays by Chinese and European scholars who have undertaken such exchange for the purpose of examining the individual and society in modern Chinese literature      The Avant-Garde and the Popular in Modern China Liang Luo,2014-07-15 Provides a new perspective on the Chinese avant garde through the figure of artist and activist Tian Han      The Translatability of Revolution Pu Wang,2020-10-20 The first comprehensive study of the lifework of Guo Moruo 1892 1978 in English this book explores the dynamics of translation revolution and historical imagination in twentieth century Chinese culture Guo was a romantic writer who eventually became Mao Zedong s last poetic interlocutor a Marxist historian who evolved into the inaugural president of China s Academy of Sciences and a leftist politician who devoted almost three decades to translating Goethe s Faust His career embedded in China s revolutionary century has generated more controversy than admiration Recent scholarship has scarcely treated his oeuvre as a whole much less touched upon his role as a translator Leaping between different genres of Guo s works and engaging many other writers texts The Translatability of Revolution confronts two issues of revolutionary cultural politics translation and historical interpretation Part 1 focuses on the translingual making of China s revolutionary culture especially Guo s translation of Faust as a development of Zeitgeist Part 2 deals with Guo s rewritings of antiquity in lyrical dramatic and historiographical paleographical forms including his vernacular translation of classical Chinese poetry Interrogating the relationship between translation and historical imagination within revolutionary cultural practice this book finds a transcoding of different historical conjunctures into now time saturated with possibilities and tensions      Sino-Japanese Transculturation Richard King,Cody Poulton,Katsuhiko Endo,2012-01-01 This is a multi author work which examines the cultural dimensions of the relations between East Asia s two great powers China and Japan in a period of change and turmoil from the late nineteenth century to the end of the Second World War This period saw Japanese invasion of China the occupation of China s North east Manchuria and Taiwan and war between the two nations from 1937 1945 the scars of that war are still evident in relations between the two countries today In their quest for modernity the rulers and leading thinkers of China and Japan defined themselves in contradistinction to the other influenced both by traditional bonds of classical culture and by the influx of new Western ideas that flowed through Japan to China. The experiences of intellectual and cultural awakening in the two countries were inextricably linked as our studies of poetry, fiction, philosophy, theatre and popular culture demonstrate. The chapters explore this process of transculturation, the sharing and exchange of ideas and artistic expression not only in Japan and China but in the larger region which Joshua Fogel has called the Sinosphere, an area including Korea and parts of Southeast Asia with a shared heritage of Confucian statecraft and values underpinned by the classical Chinese language. The authors of the chapters, who include established senior academics and younger scholars and employ a range of disciplines and methodologies, were selected by the editors for their expertise in particular aspects of this rich and complex cultural relationship. As for the editors, Richard King and Cody Poulton are scholars and translators of Chinese literature and Japanese theatre respectively, each taking a historical and comparative perspective to the study of their subject. Katsuhiko Endo is an intellectual historian dealing with both Japan and China.
