Successful Strategies And Tools For Computer Assisted Reporting:

Successful Strategies for Computerassisted Reporting Bruce Garrison,2013-10-18 Computers have changed the landscape of both gathering and disseminating information throughout the world As journalists move quickly toward the 21st century and perhaps a new era of electronic journalism they need resources to understand the newest and most successful computer based news reporting strategies This book is designed to show both professional journalists and students which of the newest personal computing tools are being used by the nation s leading news organizations and top individual journalists It describes how these resources are being used on a daily basis and for special projects The book assumes a minimal familiarity with computers but no advanced knowledge of computer operation Computer-assisted Reporting Bruce Garrison,2020-07-20 Reporters in the newsroom are becoming more involved in computer assisted reporting and online news research than ever before This edition introduces readers to computer assisted reporting and to describe how leading journalists are using personal computers for news gathering in modern print broadcast and online newsrooms It provides a thorough discussion of technology and its applications to news reporting Computer Assisted Reporting focuses on the computerization of newsgathering highlighting the fact that the computer assists journalists by making writing easier and also makes gathering and organizing information more efficient As it begins the book demonstrates methods for journalists to get more from their computers such as data retrieval data analysis information storage and dissemination of that information in both processed and unprocessed forms It concludes with a refined proposal originally proposed in the first edition for five stages for development of computer literacy in the newsroom Journalism, Reporting, Writing and Editing Rowan Kidd,2018-01-25 The present book has been brought into being in view of incessant demand pertaining to the subject Journalism inherently requires that stories be told in depth Many newspapers have cut out long articles even before the Internet They have followed the example set by television news They have been hit by the rising price of newsprint and the renewed emphasis on cost cutting They are convinced that readers are pressed for time impatient with detail and conditioned to ingest the news in pellet like form The bulk of broadcast news is reporting in the sense that is used is different rather than journalism It is epitomized by the two minute wire service radio bulletin on the hour already a fast disappearing format In this incisive and well presented work the book has synthesized the findings to lay down principles of sound journalism for both those in the industry and the citizens who rely on the free press as a fundamental element of democracy First and foremost among these principles is journalism s obligation to the truth It will immensely benefit students teachers mass communicators theoreticians and practitioners alike Something usable today a ready reckoner for years to come and a collector s item for all times A must read enduring and preservable News and the Net Barrie Gunter,2015-07-16 Originally published in 2003 This book examines the growth of news provision on the internet and its implications for news presentation journalism practice news consumers and the business of running news organizations Much of the focus is placed on the migration of newspapers onto the internet but references are also made to the establishment of news websites by other organizations The book examines the growth of online technology as a source of information and entertainment and considers how this development can be framed within models of communication and comments on the apparent shortage of new models to explain the use role effectiveness and impact of online communications Resources in Education ,2001

MediaWriting W. Richard Whitaker,Ronald D. Smith,Janet E. Ramsey,2013-03-01 MediaWriting is an introductory hands on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print broadcast and public relations MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting Complete with real world examples practical writing exercises and tips and information for entering into the profession MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists and public relations professionals Further updates and features include Increased attention to computer assisted reporting the preparation of online copy and social media applications Two new chapters on lead writing and new new media A separate chapter focused solely on ethics Explanatory how to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes Illustrative It Happened to Me vignettes from the authors professional experiences Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every chapter Suggested readings that highlight biographies books and websites that expand the scope and definition of professionalism In addition to new multimedia elements the fourth edition s companion website features enhanced resources for both students and instructors including chapter overviews writing tips a test bank sample critiques and a sample syllabus Annual Report for Fiscal Year ...
