New Outlook ,1907 Evil and Givenness Brian W. Becker,2022-02-23 Evil and Givenness The Thanatonic Phenomenon provides a phenomenological study of evil in its conceptual integrity Describing a phenomenological situation exclusive to evil in its distinct mode of givenness and manners of manifestation the account of evil in this book centers on the thanatonic as that phenomenality proper to evil Although situated within a phenomenology of givenness via Jean Luc Marion the thanatonic is distinguished from saturated phenomena by giving itself in a parasitic mode Brian W Becker identifies four figures as displaying characteristics of this parasitic givenness trauma evil eye foreign body and abject each expressing a dimension of the thanatonic and paralleling the four figures of the saturated phenomenon Like the four horsemen who serve as heralds for the destruction of the world these figures beckon the destruction of our lifeworld diminishing the self who encounters them Upon losing the will to bear the excess of saturated phenomena the receding of horizons and the loss of singularity this impoverished self misrecognizes itself in a manner that begins to resemble the metaphysical ego and in doing so becomes a vector for retransmitting the thanatonic s suffering unto others The Pacific Reporter ,1915

Performing Blackness Kimberley W. Benston,2013-04-15 Performing Blackness offers a challenging interpretation of black cultural expression since the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s Exploring drama music poetry sermons and criticism Benston offers an exciting meditation on modern black performance s role in realising African American aspirations for autonomy and authority Artists covered include John Coltrane Ntozake Shange Ed Bullins Amiri Baraka Adrienne Kennedy Michael Harper Performing Blackness is an exciting contribution to the ongoing debate about the vitality and importance of black culture Stylistics and Social Cognition Poetics and Linguistics Association. Conference,2007 This volume of articles comprises papers from the 25th annual conference of the Poetics and Linguistics Association PALA which was held at the University of Huddersfield England in July 2005 The theme of the conference was Stylistics and Social Cognition and as usual at a PALA conference this theme was interpreted very widely by the participants as the reader of this book will no doubt conclude At the heart of this volume there is something of a reaction against the cognitive developments in stylistics which might be seen as being in danger of privileging the individual interpretation of literature over something more social The concern is to consider whether there is a more collective approach that could be taken to the meaning of text and whether recent insights from cognitive stylistics could work with this idea of collectivity to define something we might call commonality of meaning in texts Stylistics and Social Cognition will be of interest to those working in stylistics and other text analytic fields such as critical discourse analysis and those concerned with notions of interpretation collective meaning and human communication Feelin Bettina Judd,2022-12-15 How creativity makes its way through feeling and what we can know and feel through the artistic work of Black women Feeling is not feelin As the poet artist and scholar Bettina Judd argues feelin in African American Vernacular English is how Black women artists approach and produce knowledge as sensation internal and complex entangled with pleasure pain anger and joy and manifesting artistic production itself as the meaning of the work Through interviews close readings and archival research Judd draws on the fields of affect studies and Black studies to analyze the creative processes and contributions of Black women from poet Lucille Clifton and musician Avery Sunshine to visual artists Betye Saar Joyce J Scott and Deana Lawson Feelin Creative Practice Pleasure and Black Feminist Thought makes a bold and vital intervention in critical theory's trend toward disembodied feeling as knowledge Instead Judd revitalizes current debates in Black studies about the concept of the human and about Black life by considering how discourses on emotion as they are explored by Black women artists offer alternatives to the concept of the human Judd expands the notions of Black women's pleasure politics in Black feminist studies that include the erotic the sexual the painful the joyful the shameful and the sensations and emotions that yet have no name In its richly multidisciplinary approach Feelin calls for the development of research methods that acknowledge creative and emotionally rigorous work as productive by incorporating visual art narrative and poetry

In Community of Inquiry with Ann Margaret Sharp Maughn Rollins Gregory, Megan Jane Laverty, 2017-08-09 In close collaboration with the late Matthew Lipman Ann Margaret Sharp pioneered the theory and practice of the community of philosophical inquiry CPI as a way of practicing Philosophy for Children and prepared thousands of philosophers and teachers throughout the world in this practice In Community of Inquiry with Ann Margaret Sharp represents a long awaited and much needed anthology of Sharp's insightful and influential scholarship bringing her enduring legacy to new generations of academics postgraduate students and researchers in the fields of education philosophy philosophy of education Philosophy for Children and philosophy of childhood Sharp developed a unique perspective on the interdependence of education philosophy personhood and community that remains influential in many parts of the world This perspective was shaped not only by Sharp's work in philosophy and education but also by her avid studies in literature feminism aesthetic theory and ecumenical spirituality Containing valuable contributions from senior figures in the fields in which Sharp produced her most focused scholarship the chapters in this book present a critical overview of how Sharp's ideas relate to education philosophy of education and the Philosophy for Children movement as a whole The historical and philosophical nature of this collection means that it will be a vital resource for philosophers and educators It should also be of great interest to teacher educators and those involved in the study of pragmatism and feminism as well as the history of education across the globe particularly in the United States of America

The Greek Plays Ellen McLaughlin, 2004-07-01 From The Persians Defeat is impossible Defeat is unthinkable We have always been the favorites of fate Fortune has cupped us In her golden palms It has only been a matter Of choosing our desire Which fruit To pick from the nodding tree This chilling passage is from Ellen McLaughlin's new adaptation of The Persians by Aeschylus the earliest surviving play in Western literature an elegy for a fallen civilization and a warning to its new conqueror As Margo Jefferson wrote in the New York Times The play is a true classic we see the present and the future right there inside the past And when writers give us a new version a translation or adaptation of a classic they both serve and use it They serve the playwright s gifts by refusing to simplify But they can t just imitate Every age has its own rhythms and drives The classic must make us feel the new acutely Ellen McLaughlin serves and uses The Persians with true power and grace Also included in this volume Iphigenia and Other Daughters from Euripides and Sophocles The Trojan Women Euripides Helen Euripides and Lysistrata Aristophanes all powerfully realized and as relevant today as when they were first performed Ellen McLaughlin s plays include Days and Nights Within A Narrow Bed Infinity s House and Tongue of a Bird which have been widely produced She is a past finalist for the Susan Smith Blackburn Prize and was the co winner of the Great American Play Contest Also an accomplished actor Ms McLaughlin is most known for having originated the part of the Angel in Tony Kushner s Angels in America appearing in every U S production through its Broadway run

State Consent to Foreign Military Intervention during Civil Wars Seyfullah Hasar,2022-04-04 Examining the legality of foreign military intervention in internal conflicts with the consent of the government this book gives and analyses a to the point account of post Cold War State practice with more than 45 incidents of such interventions on a scale neglected in current scholarship Owing to this account it also manages to engage in peripheral aspects of the subject overlooked in the literature such as the impact of an ineffective arms embargo on a consensual intervention or the consequences of the invocation by an intervening State of both consent and its right to self defence The book also examines among others the issue of the legal legitimacy and recognition of governments the rules that can considerably constrain the scope of consensual interventions under certain circumstances and the challenging and under addressed implications of consensual interventions for the crime of aggression

The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell,2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task
