Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century Nile Green, 2006-09-27 Sufism is often regarded as standing mystically aloof from its wider cultural settings. By turning this perspective on its head, Indian Sufism since the Seventeenth Century reveals the politics and poetry of Indian Sufism through the study of Islamic sainthood in the midst of a cosmopolitan Indian society comprising migrants, soldiers, litterateurs, and princes. Placing the mystical traditions of Indian Islam within their cultural contexts, this interesting study focuses on the shrines of four Sufi saints in the neglected Deccan region and their changing roles under the rule of the Mughals, the Nizams of Hyderabad, and after 1948, the Indian nation. In particular, Green studies the city of Awrangabad, examining the vibrant intellectual and cultural history of this city as part of the independent state of Hyderabad. He employs a combination of historical texts and anthropological fieldwork which provide a fresh perspective on developments of devotional Islam in South Asia over the past three centuries, giving a fuller understanding of Sufism and Muslim saints in South Asia.
