The Moghul:

Lives of the Moghul Emperors Hobart Caunter, 1837 Sword of Persia Michael Axworthy, 2010-03-24 Nader Shah ruler of Persia from 1736 to 1747 embodied ruthless ambition energy military brilliance cynicism and cruelty His reign was filled with bloodshed betrayal and horror Yet Nader Shah is central to Iran's early modern history From a shepherd boy he rose to liberate his country from foreign occupation and make himself Shah He took eighteenth century Iran in a trajectory from political collapse and partition to become the dominant power in the region briefly opening the prospect of a modernising state that could have resisted colonial intervention in Asia He recovered all the territory lost by his predecessors including Herat and Kandahar and went on to conquer Moghul Delhi plundering the enormous treasures of India Nader commanded the most powerful military force in Asia if not the world He repeatedly defeated the armies of Ottoman Turkey the preeminent State of Islam overran most of what is now Iraq and threatened to take Baghdad on several occasions But from the zenith of his success he declined into illness insane avarice and horrific savagery committing terrible atrocities against the Persian people his friends and even his family until he finally died as violently as he had lived The Sword of Persia recreates the story of a remarkable ruthless man capable of both charm and brutality It is a rich narrative full of dramatic incident including much new research into original Iranian and other material which will prove indispensable to historians and students The book includes many contemporary illustrations and maps , Rupam , 1928 Class Structure and Economic Growth Angus Maddison, 2013-10-15 The purpose of this study is to analyse the relationship between social structure and economic performance in India and Pakistan It seeks to establish whether the social system had a significant dysfunctional role in hindering growth in the past and whether the situation has changed since independence It analyses the extent to which governments in office really tried to change the social structure and the degree to which their rhetorical commitments were constrained by the inertia of tradition and by the vested interests which inherited economic and social power Understanding Afghanistan Abdul Qayyum, 2021-10-06 This book delves into the history of Afghanistan its people and its relationship with neighbors to unravel the intricate politics and ethnolinguistic diversity of the country It discusses the history of innumerable invasions which left imprints over the country and its people and created a complex fabric of different ethnic linguistic religious and cultural groups The volume looks at the various empires which warred over the land including the Persian Greek Mongol and Sassanid dynasties as well as the later interferences by the British and the Russians and the emergence of the Taliban It examines the correlations between war power politics religion local governance and the opium trade and economy in Afghanistan The author through personal stories and anecdotes of his visits and journeys in Afghanistan provides a very rich and extensive view of Afghan politics culture and history The relationship between Afghanistan and Pakistan and Afghanistan's unique position in the politics of the region is also a thread which runs through the entire book This book will be a great resource and of interest to researchers and students of politics history Central and South Asian Studies war and international relations political economy and peace and reconciliation studies It will also interest journalists diplomats and international development organizations Across the Worlds of Islam Edward E. Curtis IV, 2023-07-18 Winner 2024 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Muslim people are found all over the world Most live outside the Middle East from Asia to the Americas The vast majority of contemporary Muslims are not fluent in Arabic and speakers of languages such as Persian Urdu and Turkish have made essential contributions to Islamic history and culture However typical courses on Islam tend to downplay areas beyond the Middle East focusing on Arabic texts and elite theological and doctrinal arguments This book offers an inclusive view of the diversity and complexity of the many worlds of Islam investigating ethics and aesthetics as much as scriptures and theology By paying attention to Muslims who are socially culturally doctrinally or politically marginalized it provides a comprehensive and all embracing vision of the religion and its many interrelated communities Contributors from a range of personal and intellectual backgrounds explore the capaciousness of Muslim identities helping readers achieve a broader understanding of the past present and future of the Muslim world This book includes communities such as the Nation of Islam and Alevi Muslims and it goes beyond rituals like prayer and fasting to consider a wider array of practices such as tattooing Across the Worlds of Islam is at once student friendly and cutting edge written with both introductory courses and general readers in mind Examining Muslim identity and practice from the perspective of the margins it offers nuanced portraits of Muslim life across geographic and sectarian divisions The Tarikh-i-Rashidi: an Engl. version, ed. with comm. by N. Elias. The tr. by E.D. Ross Muḥammad Ḥaidar Dughlât, 1895 A History of the Moghuls of Central Asia Dughlât Muhammad Haidar, 1898 The Tarikh-i-Rashidi Mirza Muhammad Haidar, 1895
