Sun in the Morning Elizabeth Cadell, You ve had almost as much happiness in your life as countless people can reckon on in a long lifetime said her father and being a happy person by nature though not at that particular moment his daughter admitted with only the faintest snuffles that it was true Growing up in Calcutta had been glorious How could it help being with friends like Poopy and Marise with neighbours like the dear funny de Souza family Mr Rogers the actor Miss Brooke and her gushing and Mr Andros with his fussing Everybody and everything just a bit unexpected It was a carefree entrancing life she had led at the flat in Minto Lane and here is a writer with the happy knack of letting you share it all Poopy possessed a face that seemed blank to everyone but her two friends who read it with ease She started each day neatly dressed but within ten minutes the other two were pulling up her shoulder straps and anchoring her garments with safety pins Marise had beautiful curls and a chic born of her French ancestry She came to the rescue with expert advice when Poopy fell irrevocably in love with the first man she ever really looked at Poopy in turn knew how to counsel Marise in the sedate behavior likely to win over her prospective mother in law With neighbors like the dear hilarious de Souza family Benny de Souza was twelve and knew everything His conversation was an undiluted stream of solid facts Mr Rogers the actor Miss Gumm the piano teacher I began the Chopin with confidence but before I had gone very far I felt a strong push and found Miss Gumm preparing to take my place and Mr Andros that chap that goes and shoots man eaters everybody and everything just a bit unexpected The story is seen through the eyes of a girl whose name we never learn She views her friends with love and loyalty and humor and knows that life will never be quite the same when her girlhood is over

Editor s note This book though written in the style of fiction is largely an autobiography of Elizabeth Cadell s own childhood in British India in the early 1900 s In reading it her fans will gain a wider perspective of their favorite author
