The Moses Legacy In Search Of The Origins Of God:

The Moses Legacy Graham Phillips, 2003 This is the default conversion keynote text and should be changed A Search for the Origins of Judaism Etienne Nodet, 1997-03-01 Translated by J Edward Crowley This radical reconstruction of the origins of Judaism starts by observing that Josephus's sources on the early history of Israel do not agree with the Bible and that the oldest rabbinic traditions show no sign of a biblical foundation Another interesting question is raised by the Samaritan claim at the time of Antiochus Epiphanes that they had only recently received the Sabbath from the Jews From such details Nodet creates a comprehensive line of argument that reveals two major sources of Judaism as symbolized in the subtitle of his work Joshua was the one who established locally in writing a statute and a law at the Shechem assembly while the Mishnah was the ultimate metamorphosis of traditions brought from Babylon and combined with Judean influences

L. Wynn, 2010-01-01 2008 Leeds Honor Book in Urban Anthropology Society for Urban National and Transnational Global Anthropology Living in Egypt at the turn of the millennium cultural anthropologist L L Wynn was struck by the juxtapositions of Western Gulf Arab and Egyptian viewpoints she encountered For some Egypt is the land of mummies and pharaohs For others it is a vortex of decadence where nightlife promises a chance to salivate over belly dancers and maybe even glimpse a movie star Offering a new approach to ethnography Pyramids and Nightclubs examines cross cultural encounters to bring to light the counterintuitive ways in which Egypt is defined Guiding readers on an armchair journey that introduces us to Russian and Australian belly dancers on Nile cruise ships Egyptian rumors about an Arab prince and his royal entourage Saudi girls looking for a less restrictive dating scene and other visitors to this antique land Wynn uses the lens of travel and tourism to depict a fascinating and often surprising version of Egypt while exploring the concept of stereotype itself Tracing the history of Western and Arab fascination with Egypt through spurious hunts for lost civilizations and the new economic disparities brought about by the oil industry Pyramids and Nightclubs ultimately describes the ways in which moments of cultural contact driven by tourism and labor migration become eye opening opportunities for defining self and other The British National Bibliography

Wynn,2018-11-23 Cairo is a city obsessed with honor and respectability and love affairs Sara a working class woman has an affair with a married man and becomes pregnant only to be abandoned by him Ayah and Zeid a respectably engaged couple argue over whether Ayah s friend is a prostitute or a virgin Malak a European belly dancer who sometimes gets paid for sex wants to be loved by a man who won t treat her like a whore just because she s a dancer and Alia a Christian banker who left her abusive husband is the mistress of a wealthy Muslim man Haroun who encourages business by hosting risqu parties for other men and their mistresses Set in transnational Cairo over two decades Love Sex and Desire in Modern Egypt is an ethnography that explores female respectability male honor and Western theories and fantasies about Arab society L L Wynn uses stories of love affairs to interrogate three areas of classic anthropological theory mimesis kinship and gift She develops a broad picture of how individuals love and desire within a cultural and political system that structures the possibilities of and penalties for going against sexual and gender norms Wynn demonstrates that love is at once a moral horizon an attribute that naturally inheres in particular social relations a social phenomenon strengthened through cultural concepts of gift and kinship and an emotion deeply felt and desired by individuals Remember Who You Are Gail F Nicholls,2018-12-12 This is Gail s personal journey starting of being awakened at 3 years to remember who she is Never feeling like she fitted into society and feeling so alone In her 40 s she started to travel extensively to find out for herself who was she remembering past life times and one that blew her away She discusses the DNA what makes us who we are and even discusses her theories on Extraterrestrials Earth Cycles plus so much more She prays when you read it it will awaken inside of yourself an inner peace and understanding that you are a beautiful human being having a most amazing experience we call LIFE and we are the creators of it Telling Pacific Lives Vicki Luker,Brij V. Lal,2008-06-01 This volume of essays is an exploration of the way in which scholars from different disciplines standpoints and theoretical orientations attempt to write life stories in the Pacific It is the product of a conference organised by the Division of Pacific and Asian History at The Australian National University in December 2005 The aim of the conference was to explore ways in which Pacific lives are read and constructed through a variety of media films fiction faction history under four overarching themes The first Framing Lives sought to explore various ways of constructing a life from a classic western perspective of birth formation experiences and death of an individual to other ways for example life as secondary to a longer genealogical entity life as a symbol of collective experience individual lives captured and fragmented in a mosaic of others lives made meaningful by their implication in a particular historical or cultural web the underlying values and world views that inform one or another approach to framing a life The second theme the Stuff of Life looked at materials methods and collaborative arrangements with which the biographer autobiographer and recorder work their objectives constraints inspirations challenges and tricks The third section Story Lines focused on formats and genres such as edited diaries collections of writings voice recordings genres of biography autobiography truth and fiction verse dance novels and the varieties and different advantages of narrative shapes that crystallise the telling of a life The final section Telling Lives Changing Lives focused on biography autobiography and the consciousness of identity history purpose lives as witness and windows telling lives as change for those involved in the tale the telling the listening The overall aim was to bring out both the generic or universal challenges of telling lives as well as to highlight the particular tendencies and trends in the Pacific Yet these four themes which seemed analytically promising at the outset proved in practice difficult to disentangle from the presentations at the workshop Provided by publisher
