Historian Joseph Levenson,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1976 China and Ashkenazic Jewry: Transcultural Encounters Kathryn Hellerstein,Lihong Song,2022-04-04 In the past thirty years the Sino Jewish encounter in modern China has increasingly garnered scholarly and popular attention This volume will be the first to focus on the transcultural exchange between Ashkenazic Jewry and China The essays here investigate how this exchange of texts and translations images and ideas has enriched both Jewish and Chinese cultures and prepared for a global inclusive world literature The book breaks new ground in the field covering such new topics as the images of China in Yiddish and German Jewish letters the intersectionality of the Jewish and Chinese literature in illuminating the implications for a truly global and inclusive world literature the biographies of prominent figures in Chinese Jewish connections the Chabad engagement in contemporary China Some of the fundamental debates in the current scholarship will also be addressed with a special emphasis on how many Jewish refugees arrived in Shanghai and how much interaction occurred between the Jewish refugees and the resident Chinese population during the wartime and its aftermath Bridge Across Broken Time Vera Schwarcz,1998-01-01

Schwarcz uncovers resonances between the narratives of Chinese intellectuals recovering from the trauma of the Cultural Revolution and the halting tales of her own parents Way, Learning, and Politics Tu Wei-ming,1993-07-01 The emergence of New Confucian Humanism as a major intellectual and spiritual tradition in the Chinese cultural area since the Second World War is a phenomenon vitally important and intriguing to students of history philosophy and religion The Confucian vision rooted in the Chinese Korean Vietnamese and Japanese civilizations has been sustained through more than two millennia of constant social change and holds special meaning for both industrial and socialist East Asia today Indeed as a living force defining our humanity and exploring our human potential for authentic self realization it addresses evolving concerns of East Asian civilizations with profound implications for the post modernized world This book by a leading scholar and thinker of the New Confucian Humanism offers a panoramic view of the core values of the Confucian intellectual from historical and comparative cultural perspectives Grounded in sound sinological scholarship it brilliantly interprets the Confucian project the formation of a moral community and the embodiment of the Mandate of Heaven in ordinary human existence through authentic self realization In the words of the eminent Princeton sinologist Fritz Mote through Tu Wei ming s thought provoking ideas we are shown what has constituted the life blood of Confucianism throughout its history and are led to understand how it still lives We are made to see where it resides in the world today especially within the consciousness of modern East Asians whether or not so identified by them and increasingly in the awareness of philosophers and historians of thought everywhere Like Professor Tu s earlier book Confucian Thought Selfhood as Creative Transformation this book will stir modern minds and evoke powerful responses from scholars in ethics religion history and philosophy as well as those in East Asian studies

21st Century China Mary Farquhar, 2009-10-02 Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd famously said that China issues are part of 21st century Australia s very life blood This brings short term challenges to the Australia China relationship from Chinese investments in our resources to visits to Australia by expatriate regional political and religious leaders labelled splittists or terrorists by the Chinese government Our long term relationship includes robust scholarship on China as an emerging superpower In this book leading Australian academics comment on the arts law politics and society in China today The book opens with Geremie Barm s essay on re orienting Beijing city for the Olympics and closes with restaurateur Kylie Kwong s reminiscences and recipes from a Chinese childhood in Sydney s suburbs Readers will discover a rich engagement with China in the twelve chapters of this volume ranging from Confucianism to green Australian Chinese cuisine

Perspectives on Modern China Kenneth Lieberthal, Joyce Kallgren, Roderick MacFarquhar, Frederic Wakeman, 2016-09-16 The conveners the editors of this book of the September 1989 Four Anniversaries China Conference in Annapolis asked the contributors to look back from that point in time to consider four major events in modern Chinese history in the perspective of the rapid changes that were shaping the Chinese society economy polity and sense of place in the world in the 1980s a time when China was making rapid strides toward becoming more integrated with the outside world With contributions by distinguished scholars in the field the four anniversaries considered are the High Qing the May Fourth Movement forty years of communism in China and ten years of the Deng era

Explaining Chinese Democratization Shaohua Hu, 2000-01-30 Hu seeks to explain China's failure to establish a democratic system He demonstrates both continuity and change in China's democratization process Modern China regards power and wealth as primary goals and treats a strong state as a major means to these ends Such a preference puts democracy on a back burner Employing a theoretical framework which consists of five factors historical legacies local forces the world system socialist values and economic development Hu shows that while all of these factors were at work in all eras each assumes a special significance in a particular period Traditional China before the 1911 Revolution attempted to adjust itself to a new Western dominated world In the Republican era the control of local forces topped the political agenda Nationalist China sought to survive and develop in the world system while Maoist China set for itself the task of building a socialist state And of course economic development has been the priority of the Deng era As Hu shows these five factors have had determining impacts on the long struggle for democracy in China
