The Murder of Griboedov Evelyn J. Harden, 1979 The Murder of Griboedov Evelyn J. Harden, 1979 The Contest for Rule in Eighteenth-Century Iran Charles Melville, 2022-07-14 This volume explores the troubled eighteenth century in Iran between the collapse of the Safavids and the establishment of the new Qajar dynasty in the early decades of the nineteenth century. Despite the striking military successes of Nader Shah to defeat the Afghan invaders, drive back the Ottomans in the west and launch campaigns into India and Central Asia, Iran steadily lost territory in the Caucasus and the east where Persian arms failed to recover lands lost to the Afghans and the Ozbeks. The chapters of this book cover the continuity and change over this transitional period from a range of perspectives including political history, historiography, art and material culture. They illuminate the changes in Iran's internal conditions including the legitimising legacy of the Safavid period in court chronicles, the rise of Nader Shah and his influence on the idea of Iran, as well as the art of successive dynasties competing for power and prestige. The volume also addresses Iran's changed international situation by examining relations with Russia, Britain and India, the result of which would contribute to its re-emergence with a curtailed presence in the new world order of European dominance.

Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles, this two-volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century. The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear, detailed and accurate reference source on the literature, thought, music and art of the period, demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism.

The Imperial Sublime Harsha Ram, 2003-09-12 Review The Imperial Sublime examines the rise of the Russian empire as a literary theme alongside the creation and evolution of modern Russian poetry between the 1730s and 1840. Arising from the need to celebrate the Russian state and its expanding territories, the imperial theme quickly became enmeshed in a wider range of issues from formal problems of genre, style and lyric voice to the vexed relationship between the poet and Russia's ruling monarchs. Part of a growing body of recent scholarship that has examined Russian representations of Russia's southern borderlands in the light of European orientalism and imperialism, The Imperial Sublime shows how the broader cultural discourses of empire can be adapted and inflected by a national literary system.

BOOK JACKET Iranian-Russian Encounters Stephanie Cronin, 2013 Over the past two hundred years, encounters between Iran and Russia have been both rich and complex. This book explores the myriad dimensions of the Iranian-Russian encounter during a dramatic period which saw both Iran and Russia subject to revolutionary upheavals and transformed from multinational dynastic empires typical of the nineteenth century to modernizing authoritarian states typical of the twentieth. The collection provides a fresh perspective on traditional preoccupations of international relations: wars and diplomacy, the hostility of opposing nationalisms, the Russian imperial menace in the nineteenth century and the Soviet threat in the twentieth century. Going beyond the traditional, this book examines subaltern as well as elite relations and combines a cultural, social and intellectual dimension with the political and diplomatic. In doing so, the book seeks to construct a new discourse which contests the notion of an implacable enmity between Iran and Russia. Bringing together leading scholars in the field, this book demonstrates extensive use of family archives, Iranian, Russian and Caucasian travelogues and memoirs and newly available archives in both Iran and the countries of the former Soviet Union. Providing essential background to current international tensions, this book will be of particular use to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Russia.

The Western Christian Presence in the Russias and Qājār Persia, c.1760-c.1870 Thomas O'Flynn, 2017-08-28 Winner of The 2018 Saidi Sirjani Book Award. In The Western Christian Presence in the Russias and Qājār Persia, c. 1760-c. 1870 Thomas O'Flynn vividly paints the life and times of missionary enterprises in early nineteenth century Russia and Persia at a moment of immense change when Tsarist Russia embarked on an expansionist campaign reaching to the Caucasus. Simultaneously, he charts the relationship between the new Persian dynasty of the Qājārs and missionary activity on the part of European and American missionaries. This book reconstructs that world from a predominantly religious perspective. It recounts the sustaining ideals as well as the everyday struggles of the western missionaries: Protestant, Scottish, Basel and American Congregationalist and Catholic, Jesuit and Vincentian. It looks at the reactions of diverse tribal peoples: the Tatars of the North Caucasus, the Kabardians and Circassians. Persia was the ultimate goal of these missionaries, which they eventually reached in the 1820s. Altogether, this study throws light on the troubled course of history in West Asia and provides the background to politico-religious conflicts in Chechnya and Persia that persist to the present day.

Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998. It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries, be they academic or public.

The Tsar's Abolitionists Liubov Kurtynova-D'Herlughnan, 2010-05-20 This book presents a well documented and important analysis of slavery and slave trade in the Caucasus within the fascinating contexts of Russian empire building and emerging imperial identity of the Russian state as well as of the local political strategies of Caucasian political actors. The author offers a compelling multi-layered analysis that is accessible to comparativists since it presents an important comparative case for slavery and its abolition which helps us understand slavery in the broader contexts of both the ancient and western colonial worlds. The historical detail and use of frequent primary source quotations provide a lively sense of reality to this well worked regional history with substantial comparative significance.

Agreeable News from Persia D.T. Potts, 2022-09-06 Eighteenth and nineteenth century European, British and American newspapers constitute a rich and largely untapped source of contemporary, often eyewitness accounts of historical events and opinions concerning Iran from the late Safavid 1712 through the Qajar c. 1797-1920 period. This study collects and annotates thousands of articles published in the Colonial and early Republican American newspapers from the first mention of events in

Persia in the American press 1712 to the death of Mohammad Shah 1848 unlocking for the first time a wealth of information on Iran and its place in the world during the 18th and early 19th century
