The Murrumbidgee Kid:

The Murrumbidgee Kid Peter Yeldham, 2009-08-31 A heart warming evocation of childhood during the Great Depression I loved every page BRYCE COURTENAY The small town of Gundagai in the 1930s is no place for the attractive and flamboyant Belle Carson and her young son Teddy particularly when she longs for him to achieve the success that eluded her on the stage and screen Determined to pursue this dream she abandons her husband and their Murrumbidgee River home for a more vibrant city life But Belle's obsession leads her and Teddy whom the press christens the Murrumbidgee Kid into a world where nothing is safe or familiar And from her carefully hidden past a threat soon emerges to make their precarious lives even more vulnerable From rural Gundagai to the bright lights and shady underbelly of 1930s Sydney this is a beautifully written and absorbing story about an unconventional family's coming of age

Against the Tide Peter Yeldham, 2011-05-24 They came from the ruins of the war in Europe Sarah Wiseman the survivor of a German concentration camp Michael and Helen Francis a brother and sister fleeing from the Russians in Budapest and Neil Latham the young English soldier who broke the rules to help them all survive The four arrive in Australia seeking a new start in the lucky country But life in post war Sydney amid the gangs and corruption and in the high country of Australia's Snowy Mountain is hardly an idyllic existence And the past left so far behind threatens to jeopardise all their futures in unexpected and terrifying ways It seems only a matter of time before buried secrets will be revealed

The Currency Lads Peter Yeldham, 2009-03-02 The master of the Australia historical blockbuster DAILY TELEGRAPH Daniel Johnson and Matthew Conway are currency lads born and bred in the new land now being called Australia Closer than brothers they harbour a secret that binds them for life But change is coming When the British government resolves to turn back the clock and renew convict transportation Daniel and Matthew find themselves on opposite sides of a fierce conflict that threatens to tear their friendship apart Set in the bustling maritime world of 1830s Sydney and spanning two decades this is an unforgettable novel of loyalty and love that captures the spirit and energy of early Australia A ripping great yarn featuring characters with depth and storylines to match
