Museums, Children and Social Action Sharon E. Shaffer,2023-12-15 Museums Children and Social Action examines the role that museums play in reaching teaching and inspiring children as global citizens of the world and looking to the future argues that the sustainability of museums will come from strengthening relationships with young visitors Presenting a diverse range of programs exhibitions and outreach from museums across five continents Shaffer highlights how museums are already serving children and making a difference in their lives Arguing that museums have a unique responsibility to connect this audience with relevant social issues and challenges such as social injustice racism climate change and poverty Shaffer simultaneously acknowledges that a large number of children are still on the margins of the institution and its mission Recognizing the ways in which museums are currently serving children the book also considers what museums could and should be doing as they plan for the future raising critical questions about core values community partners and social agendas Museums Children and Social Action is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of museums social justice and childhood It encourages museums to make it their mission to educate and serve this audience and their families for the good of children as well as museums while also considering what their institutions can do to make a lasting impact on children and their families

The Second World War in the Twenty-First-Century Museum Stephan Jaeger,2020-02-24 The Second World War is omnipresent in contemporary memory debates As the war fades from living memory this study is the first to systematically analyze how Second World War museums allow prototypical visitors to comprehend and experience the past It analyzes twelve permanent exhibitions in Europe and North America including the Bundeswehr Military History Museum in Dresden the Museum of the Second World War in Gdańsk the House of European History in Brussels the Imperial War Museums in London and Manchester and the National WWII Museum in New Orleans in order to show how museums reflect and shape cultural memory as well as their cognitive ethical emotional and aesthetic potential and effects This includes a discussion of representations of events such as the Holocaust and air warfare In relation to narrative memory and experience the study develops the concept of experientiality on a sliding scale between mimetic and structural forms which provides a new textual spatial method for reading exhibitions and understanding the experiences of historical individuals and collectives It is supplemented by concepts like transnational memory empathy and encouraging critical thinking through difficult knowledge

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
