SOME POLITICAL REFLECTIONS

BY

A GENTLEMAN WITH A DUSTER

"Right and wrong are in the nature of things. They are not words and phrases. They are in the nature of things, and if you transgress the laws laid down, imposed by the nature of things, depend upon it you will pay the penalty."

AUTHOR, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections If I may presume to offer a word of counsel to those for whom this present edition is chiefly intended I would beg them to be guided in their choice of leaders mainly by moral qualities that is to say qualities of character rather than of intellect and then to be as loyal to those chosen leaders as they should be severe in their judgment on lesser men whose interest lies in making bad blood between the captain and the rank and file Discipline is essential to the existence of democracy without it there can be nothing but disorder disappointment and defeat The great beginning is a reasonable goal then a choice of high minded leaders and then a stout and loyal heart for the long march to a more just and beautiful world When democracy demands character in its leaders when it feels in its blood the atlantic difference between a specious talker and a man of profound virtue then but not even then without loyalty can it hope to find a happy issue out of all its afflictions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Mirrors of Downing Street Harold Begbie, 1921 The Mirrors of Downing Street Harold Begbie, 1920 The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections by a Gentleman with a Duster Begbie Harold, 2016-06-23 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections by a Gentleman with a Duster by Harold Begbie

Public men must expect criticism and no criticism is so good for them and therefore for the State as criticism of character but their position is difficult and they may justly complain when those to whom they have spoken in the candour of private conversation make use of such confidences for a public purpose If here and there I have in any degree approached this offence let me urge two excuses First inspired by a pure purpose I might very easily have said far more than I have said and second my purpose is neither to grind my own axe as witness my anonymity nor to inflict personal pain as witness my effort to be just in all cases but truly to raise the tone of our public life It is the conviction that the tone of our public life is low and that this low tone is reacting disastrously in many directions which has set me about these studies in political personality There is too much dust on the mirrors of Downing Street for our public men to see themselves as others see them Some of that dust is from the war some of it is the old fashioned political dust intended for the eyes of the public but I think that the worst of all hindrances to true vision is breathed on the mirrors by those self regarding public men in whom principle is crumbling and moral earnestness is beginning to moulder One would wipe away those smears My duster is honest cotton the hand that holds it is at least clean and the energy of the rubbing is inspired solely by the hope that such labour may be of some benefit to my country I think our statesmen may be better servants of the great nation they have the honour to serve if they see themselves as others see them others who are not political adversaries and who are more interested in the moral and intellectual condition of the State than in the fortunes of its parties We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
