Excerpt from The Mission History and Times of the Farmers Union A Narrative of the Greatest Industrial Agricultural Organization in History and Its Makers The fate of humanity and the rapidity of progress have been determined by many critical developments in past centuries Since the beginning of creation men have been continually if somewhat blindly working toward a more perfect conception of liberty a finer adjustment of rights and privileges so that no one class or clique should profit at the expense of another so that opportunity should be equalized and each man's title to happiness made to rest solely upon his own merits The Magna Charta of the English barons is an illustration of the peculiar crisis of which I am speaking That historic document sought to chain kings down to an equitable interpretation of the rights of the average man and to assure at least a degree of justice in government About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works MISSION HIST & TIMES OF THE FA Charles Simon 1866 Barrett, 2016-08-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Mission, History and Times of the Farmers' Union; A Narrative of the Greatest Industrial-Agricultural Organization in History and Its Makers Charles Simon Barrett, 2015-12-05 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the
