The Morning After Optimism:

A History of Irish Theatre 1601-2000 Chris Morash, 2002 Chris Morash's widely praised account of Irish Theatre traces an often forgotten history leading up to the Irish Literary Revival. He then follows that history to the present by creating a remarkably clear picture of the cultural contexts which produced the playwrights who have been responsible for making Irish theatre's world wide historical and contemporary reputation. The main chapters are each followed by shorter chapters focusing on a single night at the theatre. This prize winning book is an essential entertaining and highly original guide to the history and performance of Irish theatre.

The Theatre of Tom Murphy Nicholas Grene, 2017-10-05 Tom Murphy shot to fame with the London production of A Whistle in the Dark in 1961 establishing him as the outstanding Irish playwright of his generation. The international success of Druid Murphy the 2012-13 staging of three of his major plays by the Druid Theatre Company served to underline his continuing appeal and importance. This is the first full scale academic study devoted to his theatre providing an overview of all his work with a detailed reading of his most significant texts. His powerful and searchingly honest engagement with Irish history and society is reflected in the violent Whistle in the Dark the epic Famine 1968 the often hilarious Conversations on a Homecoming 1985 and the darkly Chekhovian The House 2000. Folklore and myth figure more prominently in the spiritual drama of The Sanctuary Lamp 1975 the Faustian Gigli Concert 1983 and the women's stories of Bailegangaire 1985. The range and reach of Murphy's theatre is demonstrated in this informed reading supported by key interviews with the playwright himself and his most important theatrical and critical interpreters.

The Morning After Optimism Thomas Murphy, 1973-01-01 CIE, 1929 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2010-08-10 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is an authoritative guide to the work of twenty five playwrights from the last 50 years whose work has helped to shape and define Irish theatre. Written by a team of international scholars it provides an illuminating survey and analysis of each writer's plays and will be invaluable to anyone interested in studying or teaching contemporary Irish drama. The playwrights examined range from John B Keane Brian Friel and Tom Murphy to the crop of writers who emerged in the 1990s and who include Martin McDonagh Marina Carr Emma Donoghue and Mark O Rowe. Each essay features a biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright a discussion of their most important plays an analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits the critical reception and their place in the discourses of Irish theatre a bibliography of texts and critical material. With a total of 190 plays discussed in detail over half of which were written during the 1990s and 2000s The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is unrivalled in its study of recent plays and playwrights.
