The Mounties Patrol The Sea:

The Mounties Patrol the Sea Tom E. Clarke, 1969 Chronicles the twenty six year career of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police schooner St Roch especially designed in 1928 to patrol the western Arctic coast and eventually navigate the Northwest Passage

Across the Top of the World James Delgado, 2009-12-01 The centuries long quest for the fabled Northwest Passage rivals the story of Antarctic exploration for heroism drama and tragedy Expedition after expedition set off in search of a sea route connecting Europe with Asia's riches each expedition suffered extreme hardship and ended in defeat until Roald Amundsen finally succeeded in 1903

Across the Top of the World brings this incredible saga to life through exhaustive research grim firsthand accounts and hundreds of dramatic images Paintings engravings and photos of the intrepid men and their ships as well as of relics and archaeological sites provide a poignant and compelling link with the past while landscapes and seascapes of the harsh yet beautiful Arctic illustrate the challenges that faced explorers Covering all the major expeditions in detail and written with passion and authority this book is both a scholarly reference and an eminently readable history of Arctic exploration

Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Northwest Passage Alan Day, 2006-01-03 This compendium of explorers navigators and expeditions tackles this broad topic with a convenient but extensive cross referenced dictionary A chronology traces the long succession of treks to find the passage the introduction helps explain what motivated them and the bibliography provides a means for those wishing to discover more information on this exciting subject

Maritime Animals Kaori Nagai, 2023-08-31 This volume explores nonhuman animals involvement with human maritime activities in the age of sail as well as the myriad multispecies connections formed across different geographical locations knitted together by the long history of global ship movement Far from treating the ship as a confined space defined by the sea Maritime Animals considers the ship's connections to broader contexts and networks and covers a variety of locations from the Canadian Arctic to the Pacific Islands Each chapter focuses on the oceanic experiences of a particular species from ship vermin animals transported onboard as food and animal specimens for scientific study to livestock companion and working animals deep sea animals that find refuge in shipwrecks and terrestrial animals that hunker down on flotsam and jetsam Drawing on recent scholarship in animal studies maritime studies environmental humanities and a wide range of other perspectives and storytelling approaches Maritime Animals challenges an anthropocentric understanding of maritime history Instead this volume highlights the ways in which species through their interaction with the oceans tell stories and make histories in significant and often surprising ways In addition to the editor the contributors to this volume include Anna Boswell Nancy Cushing Lea Edgar David Haworth Donna Landry Derek Lee Nelson Jimmy Packham Laurence Publicover Killian Quigley Lynette Russell Adam Sundberg and Thom van Dooren
