Skinned Alive? Lora Allison,2004 Authority to Tread Rebecca Greenwood,2005-01-01 Why does it seem that so many areas of the world including our own cities are gripped by darkness And how do intercessors begin to engage in high levels of warfare against the enemy In Authority to Tread Rebecca Greenwood takes the reader step by step into the spiritual combat zone where high ranking principalities and powers are assigned to geographical territories and social networks Through insightful teaching and personal illustration she shows how strategic level spiritual warfare equips God s army to plunder even the strongest camps of the enemy Intercessors prayer leaders and pastors and all who desire to see nations and peoples of the earth set free to hear the gospel will find this a vital tool for breakthrough and transformation Destined to Rule Rebecca Greenwood,2007-10 Respected speaker and author Rebecca Greenwood encourages readers to claim their place in God s kingdom and equips them to carry out the dominion mandate that is still in effect Suspended Animation Robert Mills,2006-02-01 Suspended Animation argues that not only is the stereotype of uncontrolled violence in the Middle Ages historically misleading the gulf between modern society and the medieval era is not as immense as we might think

Reporting Skin and the Wounded Body in

Victorian Britain Diana Garrisi, 2024-12-05 Drawing on a wide range of primary sources this book explains what made skin newsworthy in Victorian Britain It represents a unique contribution to the media history of the human body by delving into the cultural and historical underpinnings of wound representation in Western culture Employing a case study approach the book provides a comprehensive exploration of the interplay between dermatology and the Victorian press This work suggests that there was a mutually constitutive relationship between skin reporting and the formal evolution of news discourse during the nineteenth century Narratives related to skin such as wounds caused by corporal punishment plagues resulting from neglect in workhouses and occupational skin diseases emerged as defining features of Victorian newspapers Notably media coverage of wounded skin assumed a central rhetorical position in debates pertaining to discipline abuse poverty labour and social norms a legacy still discernible in contemporary journalism Analysing the mediation of the wounded body in Victorian Britain offers a unique insight into the foundations of modern journalism It sheds light on the impossibility of maintaining an objective framework when observing and reporting on bodies in pain Paradoxically news writers and commentators of that era navigated this challenge by encapsulating such narratives within rhetorical constructs that provided a template for the evolution of contemporary news values
