SkySisters Jan Bourdeau Waboose, 2021-04-15 Wisdom comes to two Ojibway sisters as they share a powerful night together watching the northern lights Cognitive Archaeology David Whitley, Johannes Loubser, Gavin Whitelaw, 2019-11-28 Cognitive Archaeology Mind Ethnography and the Past in South Africa and Beyond aims to interpret the social and cultural lives of the past in part by using ethnography to build informed models of past cultural and social systems and partly by using natural models to understand symbolism and belief How does an archaeologist interpret the past Which theories are relevant what kinds of data must be acquired and how can interpretations be derived One interpretive approach developed in southern Africa in the 1980s has been particularly successful even if still not widely known globally With an expressed commitment to scientific method it has resulted in deeper well tested understandings of belief ritual settlement patterns and social systems This volume brings together a series of papers that demonstrate and illustrate this approach to archaeological interpretation including contributions from North America Western Europe and sub Saharan Africa in the process highlighting innovative methodological and substantive research that improves our understanding of the human past Professional archaeological researchers would be the primary audience of this book Because of its theoretical and methodological emphasis it will also be relevant to method and theory courses and postgraduate students Fairy Tale Stephen King, 2024-06-25 Master storyteller Stephen King goes into the deepest well of his imagination in this 1 New York Times bestselling and spellbinding novel about a young man who inherits the keys to a parallel world where good and evil are at war and the stakes could not be higher for that world or ours Charlie Reade looks like a regular high school kid great at baseball and football a decent student But he carries a heavy load His mom was killed in a horrific accident when he was seven and grief drove his dad to drink Charlie learned how to take care of himself and his dad When Charlie is seventeen he meets a dog named Radar and her aging master Howard Bowditch a recluse in a big house at the top of a big hill with a locked shed in the backyard Sometimes strange sounds emerge from that shed Charlie starts doing jobs for Mr Bowditch and loses his heart to Radar Then when Bowditch dies he leaves Charlie a cassette tape telling a story no one would believe What Bowditch knows and has kept secret all his long life is that inside the shed is a portal to another world The Science of Society William Graham Sumner, Albert Galloway Keller, Maurice Rea Davie, 1927 Vols 1 3 paged continuously Vol 4 by W G Sumner A G Keller and M R Davie Published under the auspices of the Sumner Club on the foundation established in memory of Philip Hamilton McMillan of the class of 1894 Yale College Bibliographical note v 4 p 1193 1268 Gender, Song, and Sensibility Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-08-30 The authors present a historical picture of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by exploring domains of imagination as revealed in courting songs ballads and folktales from across the Highlands but with particular reference to field areas in the western Highlands Texts and or translations are from a rich corpus of materials previously unpublished in English The examples draw the reader into the imaginative world of the people while the analytical framework sets the discussion firmly into debates within interpretive anthropology The aim is to re-examine the images of gender relations in Highlands New Guinea by revealing the sensuous and emotional modalities of expressive folk genres and their aesthetic qualities Ideas and practices centered on female spirit entities are shown to be important and pervasive in cult contexts and these spirits were felt to have a significant influence on relations of courtship marriage and reproduction Both women and men are also shown to have complex expressions of emotional dispositions in the spheres of courting and the choice of marital partners By entering into these domains the book modifies earlier analyses that have concentrated on antagonism behavioral taboos separation and domination as themes in gender relations in Highland societies
