

THE FRANCES

There is no place in the Northwest Territory where so many people travel twenty miles on a public highway along mountains and valleys, where history, romance, and legend meet on the grandest of scenes. This book will express the Phelps of the Northwest and of our interesting rivers and lakes. It tells the Indian legends and the story of the great Northwest and of our life and the Indians, and how the Frances Indians, and how the story was found by her. It is a thrilling story after a search of nearly thirty years in one of the most thrilling of all American stories of the Northwest. It is a story of the last of the Indians, and how they lived. Here are the
