Price,2011-05-26 The Christian doctrine of God has traditionally been presented in two parts an account of the existence and attributes of God on the one hand and an account of God s triunity on the other The present study is an analysis of Karl Barth s doctrine of the divine attributes or perfections as it appears in his Church Dogmatics II 1 Barth s doctrine of the divine perfections has received comparatively little attention and what attention it has received is typically very selective Authors unaware of larger structural themes in Barth s account often misconstrue significant details of Barth s text Others wrongly discount the implications of Barth s doctrine of the perfections for his theology as a whole The aim of this study is primarily to clarify what Barth says about the perfections and secondarily to relate this to broader themes in Barth s theology T T Clark Studies in Systematic Theology is a series of monographs in the field of Christian doctrine with a particular focus on constructive engagement with major topics through historical analysis or contemporary restatement
