Sulla Letteratura:

La questione romantica. Rivista interdisciplinare di studi romantici vol. 15-16: Viaggio e paesaggio. Autunno 2003 primavera 2004 ,2007 Rewriting and Rereading the XIX and XX-Century Canons Brian Zuccala, Samuele Grassi, 2022-07-21 The book takes its lead from academic Annamaria Pagliaro's experience straddling Australia and Italy over a thirty year period. As both former colleagues and collaborators of Pagliaro, we editors intend to open a kaleidoscope of perspectives on the international research landscape in the fields of Italian and Anglophone studies starting from Pagliaro's own contribution to the creation of relations between the two cultures in the period that saw her work transnationally as Director of the Monash University Prato Centre 2005-2008 Italian Neorealism Charles L. Leavitt IV, 2020-05-26 Neorealism emerged as a cultural exchange and a field of discourse that served to shift the confines of creativity and revise the terms of artistic expression not only in Italy but worldwide. If neorealism was thus a global phenomenon, it is because of its revolutionary portrayal of a transformative moment in the local, regional and national histories of Italy. At once guiding and guided by that transformative moment, neorealist texts took up, reflected and performed the contentious conditions of their creation not just at the level of narrative content but also in their form, language and structure. Italian Neorealism: A Cultural History demonstrates how they did so through a series of representative case studies. Recounting the history of a generation of artists, this study offers fundamental insights into one of the most innovative and influential cultural moments of the twentieth century. Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities, various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons, aphorisms, individual major works, notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch, nationality, era, selected writings, list additional readings and anthologies Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Hallamore Caesar, 2009-05-05 The new Italian narrative that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production. The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments. The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction. In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori. They are followed by essays on two of Italy's best known contemporary writers. Marina Spunta's essay explores the representation of space, place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O'Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction. Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the Young Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London
