Sultanas Dream And Padmarag Paperback:

Sultana's Dream and Padmarag Rokeya Hossain, 2022-08-09 One of the first science fiction utopian stories and one of the first feminist utopias by celebrated pioneering feminist educator activist and Bengali writer Rokeya Hossain A Penguin Classics Edition Sultana a Muslim woman living in colonial India falls asleep and wakes up in a transformed future world a utopia in which men rather than women are relegated to the domestic sphere Women now free to explore the outside world at will and pursue an education run a peaceful and just society using scientific principles to harvest energy from the sun and live in harmony with nature Sultana s Dream was published in 1905 in the Indian Ladies Magazine the first English language periodical edited by and targeted at Indian women Like the periodical the story broke new ground As a pioneering work of science fiction and feminist utopian literature at the turn of the century Sultana s Dream is strikingly advanced in its critique of patriarchy war industrialization and the exploitation of the natural world speaking to the concerns of our contemporary world as much as its own At a time when British colonialism was using the treatment of women in India as justification for colonial intervention there Hossain s story in imagining a world in which men rather than women are kept inside positions her protest against Islamic patriarchy within a larger feminist vision that takes on Western as well as Islamic forms of gender hierarchy Her novella Padmarag is similarly utopian in its depiction of a women run school and welfare center and is both feminist and anti colonial in its outlook In both these works Hossain seizes the critique of gender roles in India away from Western commentators and turns it against British interference while also enlarging the critique to take on the problem of gender more broadly

Sultana's Dream Rokeyā (Begama), 2005 Widely regarded as Bengal s earliest and boldest feminist writer Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain 1880 1932 was a pioneering and creative educationist and social activist and the school she founded in Kolkata the Sakhawat Memorial School for Girls still thrives Sultana s Dream written in English 1905 is a delightful satirical work set in Ladyland where the men are in purdah and the women go out and work An extraordinary novella with generous dashes of melodrama and romance disasters and coincidences Padmarag written in Bengali 1924 and translated here for the first time describes a female founded and female administered community set in contemporary Bengal where women from diverse regions and ethnicities with unhappy histories of patriarchal oppression better their lot by concrete social action Both Sultana s Dream and Padmarag discuss in playful fascinating and intelligent ways the question of women s education

A Critical Study of the Novels Dr. Roshan Benjamin Khan, 2016-03-23 This is a comparative study of the unaccredited yet formidable five major Indian Muslim women novelists Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain Zeenuth Futehally Iqbalunnisa Hussain Tara Ali Baig and Attia Hossain The book explores their work with regard to themes like patriarchy feminism religiosity nationality secularity and above all liberty Their contribution to the growth of novel writing in English cannot go ignored as they created a momentum in writing novel using English language as a medium of combined feminist statements with a message to liberate Muslim women from religious conventions social taboos and a male dominated world The study of their novels also makes us aware of the grit and determination and the sheer hunger of these writers to make their mark to speak out unequivocally against prejudice basically to enlighten us how their personalities were shaped and eventually established Their sensitivities as women give an edge to the entire narrative as does their unprecedented and undaunted dare to the oppressors In the great tradition of modern and postmodern fiction our writers use their pen to stand up against inequality of any kind and to undo the stereotypes leading themselves by example

Rewriting Resistance: Caste and Gender in Indian Literature Rakibul Islam, Jakir Hossain, 2022-05-10 Rewriting Resistance: Caste and Gender in Indian Literature explores the claustrophobic shadow of discrimination hanging over Indian women and lower caste people from ancient times It examines how different literary figures paint a vivid and descriptive picture of the physical and psychological oppression faced throughout India The book traces feminist resistance subaltern resistance and resistance during the anti colonial struggle with the literary outputs discussed working as socio political activity against dominant ideologies The volume further talks about the responsibility not only of those oppressed but also of us as human beings to speak out against the violation of human rights and for justice So the book focuses on the literary writers who always dream of a better India where all people regardless of their caste class and gender can live and breathe freely The book is divided into three parts Part I describes the plight of women their commodification and the politics around them and how they fight hard to regain their faded identity Part II depicts the interesting findings on gender caste intersections and discrimination Part III explores the struggle of the low caste specifically male members of Dalit community along with their history It further portrays how orthodoxy in rituals creates the burden of traditional and existential crises Rewriting Resistance: Caste and Gender in Indian Literature re-visits Indian literary texts in terms of what they reveal about the resistance registered through the suffering of human beings women and

Dalits at the hands of fellow human beings and further links the discussion to our contemporary situation The book has a unique quality in that it is not only a detailed study of select Indian English texts but also delves into an in depth analysis of texts from Bengali Urdu and Hindi literature The work is likely to affect and appeal to students scholars and academics and can be adopted for classroom teaching and research purposes as well East Pakistan Year Book ,1958 Social Science Dr Malti Malik and Mala Aggarwal, A book on social science Women and Literary Narratives in Colonial India Sukla Chatterjee,2018-10-03 In the colonial context of South Asia there is a glaring asymmetry in the written records of the interaction between the Bengali women and their European counterparts which is indicative of the larger and the overall asymmetry of discursive power including the flow and access to information between the colonizers and their subjects This book explores the idea of gazing through literature in Colonial India Based on literary and historical analysis it focuses on four different genres of literary writing where nineteenth century Bengali women writers look back at the British colonizers In the process the European culture becomes a static point of reference and the chapters in the book show the ideological social cultural political and deeper emotional interactions between the colonized and the colonizer The book also addresses the lack of sufficient primary sources authored by Bengali women on their European counterparts by anthologizing different available genres Taking into account literary narratives from the colonized and the less represented side of the divide such as a travelogue fantasy fiction missionary text and journal articles the book represents the varying opinions and perspectives vis vis the European women Using an interdisciplinary approach charting the fields of Indology colonial studies sociology literature literary historiography South Asian feminism and cultural studies this book makes an important contribution to the field of South Asian Studies studies of empire and to Indian women s literary history Teaching Anglophone South Asian Women Writers Deepika Bahri,Filippo Menozzi,2021-06-15 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching South Asian women s writing in English including consideration of colonization and imperialism Partition war migration and diaspora tradition and modernity global capitalism climate change gender and sexuality and intersectionality Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in postcolonial literature world literature and women s studies Ethical Futures and Global Science Fiction Zachary Kendal,Aisling Smith,Giulia Champion,Andrew Milner,2020-01-27 Ethical Futures and Global Science Fiction explores the ethical concerns and dimensions of representations of the future of global science fiction focusing on the issues that dominate utopian dystopian and science fiction literature The essays examine recent visions of the future in science fiction and re examine earlier texts through contemporary lenses Across fourteen chapters the collection considers authors from Algeria Australia Canada China Egypt France Germany Haiti India Jamaica Macedonia Mexico Russia South Africa the UK and USA The volume delves into a range of ethical questions of immediate contemporary relevance including environmental ethics postcolonial ethics social justice animal ethics and the ethics of alterity Science Fiction and Indian Women Writers Urvashi Kuhad,2021-07-29 Science fiction as a literature of fantasy goes beyond the mundane to ask the question what if the world were different from the way it is It often challenges the real builds on imagination places no limits on human capacities and encourages readers to think outside their social and cultural conditioning This book presents a systematic study of Indian women s science fiction It offers a critical analysis of the works of four female Indian writers of science fiction Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain Manjula Padmanabhan Priya Sarukkai Chabria and Vandana Singh The author considers not only the evolution of science fiction writing in India but also discusses the use of innovations and unique themes including science fiction in different Indian languages the literary political and educational activism of the women writers and eco feminism and the idea of cloning in writing to argue that this genre could be viewed as a vibrant representation of freedom of expression and radical literature This ground breaking volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of English literature It will also prove a very useful source for further studies into Indian literature science and technology studies women s and gender studies comparative literature and cultural studies CBSE Class X - Social Science : A Complete Preparation Book For Class X Social Science | Topic Wise EduGorilla Prep Experts,EduGorilla Community Pvt. Ltd.,2022-09-15 The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures Peter Marks,Jennifer A. Wagner-Lawlor,Fátima Vieira,2022-03-15 The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures celebrates a literary genre already over 500 years old Specially commissioned essays from established and emerging international scholars reflect the vibrancy of utopian vision and its resiliency as idea genre and critical mode Covering politics environment geography body and mind and social organization the volume surveys current research and maps new areas of study The chapters include investigations of anarchism biopolitics and postcolonialism and study film art and literature Each essay considers central questions and key primary works evaluates the most recent research and outlines contemporary debates Literatures of Africa Australia China Latin America and the Middle East are discussed in this global cross disciplinary and comprehensive volume The Quest for Modernity and the Bengali Muslims, 1921-1947 Soumitra Sinha,1995 The Indian English Novel Priyamvada Gopal,2009-01-29 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English It is often claimed that unlike the British novel or the novel in indigenous Indian languages Anglophone fiction in India has no genealogy of its own Interrogating this received idea Priyamvada Gopal shows how the English language or Anglophone Indian novel is a heterogeneous body of fiction in which certain dominant trends and recurrent themes are nevertheless discernible It is a genre that has been distinguished from its inception by a preoccupation with both history and nation as these come together to shape what scholars have termed the idea of India Structured around themes such as Gandhi and Fiction The Bombay Novel and The Novel of Partition this study traces lines of influence across significant literary works and situates individual writers and texts in their historical context Its emergence out of the colonial encounter and nation formation has impelled the Anglophone novel to return repeatedly to the question What is India In the most significant works of Anglophone fiction India emerges not just as a theme but as a point of debate reflection and contestation Writers whose works are considered in their context include Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand RK Narayan Salman Rushdie Nayantara Sahgal Amitav Ghosh Arundhati Roy and Vikram Seth The Essential Rokeya ,2013-08-22 In The Essential Rokeya Mohammad A Quayum brings together for the first time some of the best work by one of South Asia s earliest and most heroic feminist writers and activists who was also a leading figure of the Bengal Renaissance in the nineteenth and early twentieth century Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain 1880 1932 This collection includes Rokeya s most popular story Sultana s Dream and some essays and letters written originally in English as well as Quayum s own translation of several of her fiction and non fiction works written originally in Bengali This will enable readers outside Bangladesh and West Bengal to appraise and appreciate Rokeya s fundamental role in the feminist awakening in South Asia especially among the Bengali Muslims of her time Behind the Veil Abdur Raheem Kidwai,2007 This volume of ten collected articles stands out at one level as a contribution to Marginality studies Its overarching concern is to identity the main contours of the representation of Muslim woman in post Independence Indian Writings in English 1950 2000 So doing it examines also whether this representation replicates or modifies the image of Muslim woman as ingrained in Western literary tradition Among the writers discussed are Anita Desai Shashi Deshpande Shashi Tharoor Manohar Malgonakr Attia Hossain Balwant Gargi Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain Amitav Kumar Ruskin Bond Qurratulain Hyder and a host of story writers of Indian regional languages Besides the Volume is an extensive Bibliography covering the discourse on Representation and Gender issues with pointed reference to Muslim woman New Book A History of the Indian Novel in English Ulka Anjaria,2015-07-08 A History of the Indian Novel in English traces the development of the Indian novel from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century up until the present day Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes extensive essays that shed light on the legacy of English in Indian writing Organized thematically these essays examine how English was made Indian by writers who used the language to address specifically Indian concerns Such concerns revolved around the question of what it means to be modern as well as how the novel could be used for anti colonial activism By the 1980s the Indian novel in English was a global phenomenon and India is now the third largest publisher of English language books Written by a host of leading scholars this History invites readers to question conventional accounts of India s literary history
