Subcommittee on Communications, 1978 The New Webster-Cooley Course in English ... Alice Woodworth Cooley, William Franklin Webster, 1909 You Should Have Been There Richard Norton, 2016-01-15 So many people have told me I should write a book because I almost always could come up with a true story for most any situation happening So I am succumbing to all the prompting and writing down the many stories I have stored in me It's impossible to just sit down and write everything at once I have to wait until an event happens that triggers my memory For instance when I was in the army I recorded many of the happenings of army life that I thought funny or unusual Stories I write will mostly be about other people that happened into my life and not necessarily about me but I was there an observer as much as a participant I've relied on the opinions of generous friends who think my stories are worthwhile I'm fortunate to have crossed paths with many luminaries and have been exposed to lots of humanity both good and bad I went from high school into army intelligence for three years during the Korean War After being discharged I attended Wayne State University for one year and sold cars for a short while Then I went to the Chrysler Engineering Institute I graduated from Chrysler and became a body design engineer After a while big layoffs got me looking for employment again and I went to work as a mechanical engineer for several years at companies that were into the space programs I drifted into acting and modeling and was one of the most working models around Detroit I was in over one hundred movies and TV commercials in that career for nineteen years and worked all over the country In 1980 I moved to the Palm Beach area in Florida and after a short time engineering again was hired as a salesman at one of the largest art galleries in the world I spent sixteen years at the gallery and then retired as part owner In retirement now I occupy my time painting golfing and cruising around the waters in my boat This book is about the unusual happenings in my varied life and of the many famous people I met and worked with Every story is true and written as best I can recollect Tusaayaksat -
