

THE NIGHT SKY♡

The dark sky that the day beholds,
With everything the stars mould,
To every person feeling low,
The stars and the moon shines and glow.

The stars cover the dark sky,
And every happiness they multiply,
With every constellation the stars make,
We realize the shape and the people who are fake.

The brightest star you see,
You feel the presence of person who has become a memory.

The moon that is so beautiful,
Makes me live and cheerful.

To every sensation of expression I feel,
The beauty of moon and stars heal!! ♡♡ works of literary criticism Special attention is paid to Strauss s concept linked with the idea of messianic redemption of poetry as a fore image of a future true community of men and as the earthly expression of the Absolute directed at interpreting divine revelation and its translation into human language In examining Strauss s experiments with self translation by which he aimed at establishing a dialogue between languages and between people and nations this study considers the two processes of translation from divine speech into human language and from one human language into another

Zen Poems of China and Japan Lucien Stryk,Takashi Ikemoto,2019-04-24 Excellent A fine introduction to Chinese and Japanese Zen poetry for all readers from the editors of Zen Poetry Let the Spring Breeze Enter Choice Capturing in verse the ageless spirit of Zen these 150 poems reflect the insight of famed masters from the ninth century to the nineteenth The translators in collaboration with Zen Master Taigan Takayama have furnished illuminating commentary on the poems and arranged them as to facilitate comparison between the Chinese and Japanese Zen traditions The poems themselves rendered in clear and powerful English offer a unique approach to Zen Buddhism compared with which as Lucien Stryk writes the many disquisitions on its meaning are as dust to living earth We see in these poems as in all important religious art East or West revelations of spiritual truths touched by a kind of divinity One of the most intimate and dynamic books yet published on Zen Sanford Goldstein Arizona Quarterly
