Sun Between Their Feet Collected African Stories:

The Sun Between Their Feet Doris Lessing, 1993 This is a collection of stories about Africa which evoke the people and continent drawn from the author's experiences as a child in Southern Rhodesia Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, 1973 Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, 1984 Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, 1981 Doris Lessing's Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, 1973 Collected African Stories. Book 2. The Sun Between Their Feet Doris Lessing, 1973 Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, The Sun Between Their Feet: Collected African Stories Volume Two Doris Lessing, 2012-05-31 The second volume of Doris Lessing's Collected African Stories and a classic work from the winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature The Sun Between Their Feet. Volume Two of Boris Lessing's Collected African Stories Doris Lessing, 1979 Across the Lines , 2022-05-16 This third volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the subject of intertextuality Intertextual relations between oral and written versions of literature text and performance as well as problems emerging from media transitions regionally instructed forms of intertextuality and the works of individual authors are equally dealt with Intertextuality as both a creative and a critical practice frequently exposes the essential arbitrariness of literary and cultural manifestations that have become canonized The transformation and transfer of meanings which accompanies any crossing between texts rests not least on the nature of the artistic corpus embodied in the general framework of historically and socially determined cultural traditions Traditions however result from selective forms of perception they are as much inventions as they are based on exclusion Intertextuality leads to a constant reinforcement of tradition while at the same time intertextual relations between the new literatures and other English language literatures are all too obvious Despite the inevitable impact of tradition the new literatures tend to employ a dynamic reading of culture which fosters social process and transition thus promoting transcultural rather than intercultural modes of communication Writing and reading across borders becomes a dialogue which reveals both differences and similarities More than a decolonizing form of deconstruction intertextuality is a strategy for communicating meaning across cultural boundaries The Grandmothers Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 Shocking intimate often uncomfortably honest these stories reaffirm Doris Lessing's unequalled ability to capture the truth of the human condition In the title novel two friends fall in love with each other's teenage sons and these passions last for years until the women end them vowing a respectable old age In Victoria and the Staveney's a young woman gives birth to a child of mixed race and struggles with feelings of estrangement as her daughter gets drawn into a world of white privilege The Reason for It traces the birth faltering and decline of an ancient culture with enlightening modern resonances A Love Child features a World War II soldier who believes he has fathered a love child during a fleeting wartime romance and cannot be convinced otherwise , Postcolonial Theory in the Global Age Om Prakash Dwivedi, Martin Kich, 2013-08-29 The new essays in this collection examine newer forms of colonialism operating today in an increasingly globalized world Recognizing the complexities and culpability of postcolonial politics the contributors fill gaps that exist at theoretical levels of postcolonial studies By studying film literature history and architecture they arrive at new ideas about immigration gender cultural translation identity and the future The collection is driven by notions of ethics an increasingly influential force at the grassroots if not the international level addressing capitalism and its attendant drawbacks throughout the course of the book

Chronicles of Darkness David Ward,2024-05-30 First published in 1989 Chronicles of Darkness is about images of Africa seen through the eyes of writers visitors residents and native born They range from Joseph Conrad and Olive Schreiner through Laurens van der Post Karen Blixen and Evelyn Waugh to more recent writers like Nadine Gordimer Andre Brink and J M Coetzee Such writers have frequently been faced with feelings of alienation marginality exile self consciousness and egoism It is only in this sense that the eyes which see are shadowed and troubled that Africa is a dark continent and that these writings are chronicles of darkness In some cases Africa even if merely a backdrop painted in crude and garish colors becomes a way of revealing or admitting something about Europe which might be concealed when a writer performs in a different theatre This is an interesting read for scholars and researchers of English literature and African studies Using

Literature to Teach English as a Second Language Membrive, Veronica,Armie, Madalina,2020-05-22 Innovation has replaced stereotypical and old methods as an attempt to make English language teaching and learning appealing effective and simple However teaching a second language through literature may be a paramount tool to consolidate not only students lexical and grammatical competences but also for the development of their cultural awareness and broadening of their knowledge through interaction and collaboration that foster collective learning Despite past difficulties literature s position in relation to language teaching can be revendicated and revalued Using Literature to Teach English as a Second Language is an essential research publication that exposes the current state of this methodological approach and observes its reverberations usefulness strengths and weaknesses when used in a classroom where English is taught as a second language In this way this book will provide updated tools to explore teaching and learning through the most creative and enriching manifestations of one language literature Featuring a range of topics such as diversity language learning and plurilingualism this book is ideal for academicians curriculum designers administrators education professionals researchers and students

Love, Again Doris Lessing,2012-01-30 A fierce compelling account of the nature and origins of love from Doris Lessing one of the most acclaimed writers of the twentieth century and winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature 2007 Stories

Doris Lessing,2008-09-02 This wide ranging collection of the stories by the renowned Nobel Laureate spanning more than two decades of her astonishing career highlights her singular gifts for portraying the complex lives of men and women in a modern often alienating world Included are seminal stories like To Room Nineteen in which a woman reacts against the oppression of her banal marriage with dreadful results One off the Short List which traces the surprising conclusion to a seduction gone awry The Habit of Loving in which a lonely older man who takes a vivacious young wife witnesses an unexpected reversal of intimacy Here are two classic novellas as well The Temptation of Jack Orkney and The Other Woman which exemplify Lessing's grasp of the most essential human psychology Rich and various in mood and background the settings range across England and France these stories powerfully convey the uncompromising insight intelligence and vision of one of the most ardently admired writers of our time Mara and Dann Doris Lessing, 2012-11-01 A visionary novel from Doris Lessing winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature Culture and Literature Tawhida Akhter, 2022-01-25 During the last few decades there has been remarkable progress in research on various aspects of cross cultural relationships Different fields have been explored and there are still so many fields yet to be explored We often talk about how one culture has affected another this book serves to draw parallels between different cultures It explores how culture plays an important role in the development of personality It further examines how behavior has both a positive and a negative effect in the development of personality and interrogates how literature portrays the reality of a culture through its fictitious characters

Doris Lessing Susan Watkins, 2013-07-19 This study examines the writing career of the respected and prolific novelist Doris Lessing who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2007 and has recently published what she has announced will be her final novel Whereas earlier assessments have focused on Lessing's relationship with feminism and the impact of her 1962 novel The Golden Notebook this book argues that Lessing's writing was formed by her experiences of the colonial encounter it makes use of postcolonial theory and criticism to examine Lessing's continued interest in ideas of nation empire gender and race and the connections between them The book examines the entire range of her writing including her most recent fiction and non fiction which have been comparatively neglected The book is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students of Doris Lessing's work as well as the general reader who enjoys her writing This is the first significant book length critical evaluation in ten years
