underlying reason a deterrent simple effective but not realized arising from the manner in which the Gospel sermons are prepared In training the future preachers of the Gospel there is a fairly general tradition of dependence as to form on the great court preachers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and on their imitators The acknowledged masterpieces of pulpit oratory of this period elaborate sustained elegant are widely used as models in seminaries and ecclesiastical colleges Students are encouraged to imitate them their first efforts at preaching are invariably formed on them Afterwards as priests they continue to prepare their own sermons on these lines and come to regard these forms involving the building of a somewhat elaborate verbal structure as the sole method of Gospel preaching
