The Sunita Experiment Mitali Perkins, 1994 When her grandparents come for a visit from India to California thirteen year old Sunita finds herself resenting her Indian heritage and embarrassed by the differences she feels between herself and her friends The Fiction of South Asians in North America and the Caribbean Mitali P. Wong, Zia

Hasan, 2010-06-28 This study establishes connections between the themes and methodologies of writers within the South Asian diaspora in the New World and serves both serious analysts as well as beginning readers of South Asian fiction It is an impartial study that analyzes the stylistic excellence of South Asian fiction and the clearly emergent motifs of the writers recognizing the value of the interplay of cultural differences and the need for resolution of those differences The book begins with a discussion of the works of Indo Caribbean novelists Samuel Selvon and V S Naipaul author of A House for Mr Biswas and The Enigma of Arrival thereby establishing parallels between the immigration patterns of the South Asian diaspora who first emigrated to the Caribbean long before significant numbers of South Asians came to the United States Next the fiction of Ruth Praver Jhabvala Heat and Dust the non fictional narratives of Ved Mehta Face to Face and the satire and social criticism of Bharati Mukherjee Wife and Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Sister of My Heart are discussed New literary voices such as those of Bapsi Sidhwa An American Brat Pulitzer Prize winner Jhumpa Lahiri whose characters plots and themes deal with universal human experiences Akhil Sharma Manil Suri and Samrat Upadhyay are studied for the new directions and new methods they offer A sub genre of young adult fiction is discovered in the novels of Dhan Gopal Mukerji such as in his Gay Neck The Story of a Pigeon and more recently in the works of Mitali Perkins and Indi Rana Recent expatriate novelists from South Asia such as Anita Desai Amitav Chosh Vikram Chandra and the American editions of Vikram Seth s novels are appraised together with contemporary Indo Canadian novelists and Indo Caribbean novelists resident in Canada Wild

Things! Acts of Mischief in Children's Literature Betsy Bird, Julie Danielson, Peter D. Sieruta, 2014-08-05 Secret lives scandalous turns and some very funny surprises these essays by leading kids lit bloggers take us behind the scenes of many much loved children s books Told in lively and affectionate prose this treasure trove of information for a student librarian parent or anyone wondering about the post Harry Potter children s book biz brings contemporary illumination to the warm and fuzzy bunny world we think we know Community Boundaries and Border Crossings Kristen Lillvis, Robert

Miltner, Molly Fuller, 2016-12-21 Globalization and transnationalism have reshaped our communities and their borderlines Communities exceed fixed boundaries existing instead in the liminal spaces where narratives intersect clash or cooperate These liminal spaces physical and virtual local and global provide opportunities for diversifying discussions on diaspora cultural hybridity and ethnic identity Ethnic women writers make significant contributions to this dialogue regarding the reconfiguration of people and their perimeters A multigenre and multicultural text Community Boundaries and Border Crossings explores the novels short stories essays autobiographies testimonios plays poems and hybrid poetics of established and emerging ethnic women writers This collection of critical essays highlights the new zones of cultural contact and exchange that are defining the twenty first century Each chapter reflects an awareness of cultural changes and challenges engaging readers in a richly productive conversation concerning the interconnectedness of border crossings and community boundaries Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas,1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than 1 600 titles including fiction folktales poetry and song books that focus on diverse cultural groups The selected titles published between the 1970s and 1990s are suitable for use with preschoolers through sixth graders and are likely to be found on the shelves of school and public libraries Topics are timely with an emphasis on books that reflect the needs and interests of today s children Each detailed entry includes bibliographic information Use level is also included as are cultural designation subjects and a summary The invaluable Subject Access section incorporates use level culture information

Steeped in Stories Mitali Perkins,2021-08-31 Ms Perkins personal anecdotes are a delight Wall Street Journal The stories we read as children shape us for the rest of our lives But it is never too late to discover that transformative spark of hope that children s classics can ignite within us Award winning children s author Mitali Perkins grew up steeped in stories escaping into her books on the fire escape of a Flushing apartment building and later finding solace in them as she navigated between the cultures of her suburban California school and her Bengali heritage at home Now Perkins invites us to explore the promise of seven timeless children s novels for adults living in uncertain times stories that provide mirrors to our innermost selves and open windows to other worlds Blending personal narrative accessible literary criticism and spiritual and moral formation Perkins delves into novels by Louisa May Alcott C S Lewis L M Montgomery Frances Hodgson Burnett and other literary uncles and aunts that illuminate the virtuous abundant life we still desire These novels are not perfect and Perkins honestly assesses their critical frailties and flaws related to race culture and power Yet reading or rereading these books as adults can help us build virtue unmask our vices and restore our hope Reconnecting with these stories from childhood isn t merely nostalgia In an era of uncertainty and despair they lighten our load and bring us much needed hope fashion folktales festivals and famous people to a focus on novels and picture books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions The issue of authenticity whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed Topics include Ethnicities Asian Latino Hispanic African Black Native American White European Bi Multiracial Exceptionalities Ageism Socioeconomic Status Sexual Orientation Gender and Religion The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries schools and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance Grades 4-8 Hearing All the Voices Mary Ann Darby, Miki Pryne, 2002 Hearing All the Voices is a tremendous resource for any adult who works with middle school aged adolescents This work annotates over 500 multicultural books and gives ideas on how to group the books and use the books with students both in and out of the classroom Sociocultural Contexts of Language and Literacy Bertha Perez, 2004-05-20 Sociocultural Contexts of Language and Literacy Second Edition engages prospective and in-service teachers in learning about linguistically and culturally diverse students and in using this knowledge to enrich literacy learning in classrooms and communities The text is grounded in current research and theory that integrate sociocultural and constructivist concepts and perspectives and provide a framework teachers can use to develop strategies for teaching reading writing and thinking to diverse students The focus on English literacy development does not imply advocacy for English only or ESL as the primary mode of literacy instruction Rather the authors take the position that learners need to develop literacy in their native language and that the concepts and skills learned in developing the native language create a foundation of strength from which students can develop English literacy Part I introduces relevant research and language learning theories Part II provides research reviews and information about literacy learning within specific culturally and linguistically diverse communities The chapters in Part III challenge the reader to view the multiple social intellectual cultural and language differences children bring to the classroom as an opportunity for learning and building on the diversity among students Activities and suggested readings at the end of each chapter involve readers in reflection observation meaning making and the construction of application processes for their new understandings New in the Second Edition updated research and theory on multilingual and second language literacy a focus on the interpretation of these research findings to make them useful for teachers and teacher educators in understanding and articulating the research bases for literacy practices attention to current intensely debated issues such as standards the phonics movement and high stakes testing and new activities and suggested readings Just Making Mitali Perkins, 2025 From author Mitali Perkins comes an essential companion for creatives who long for a more just world Why should we keep making art while injustice wreaks havoc Full of vivid stories practices gleaned from artists living at the margins and reflection questions Just Making will inspire and equip you to keep making beauty in a broken world More Rip-Roaring Reads for Reluctant Teen Readers Bette D. M. Wright, 1998-10-15 When looking for exciting quality literature to use in the middle school classroom reach for this book. It identifies and describes 300 contemporary and classic books that relate to middle school science, history, ancient cultures, and U.S. physical education, English language, classic literature, grammar and usage, mathematics, and fine arts. The book also has useful sections on biographies, multicultural selections, poetry, read-alouds, recent releases, high interest/low reading level material, myths and legends, and unique reads. Wright lists curriculum links for each book and a reference chart lists all titles with their pertinent categories.

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles,Martha Smith,2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children s lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles Grades 4 8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education food

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked. Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated, with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English. Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing, this encyclopedia documents the poets, novelists, essayists, and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre-independence era and their dedicated works. Written by internationally recognized scholars, this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers, their major contributions, and the critical reception accorded to them. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students, teachers, and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature.
