Temiar Religion, 1964-2012 Geoffrey Benjamin, 2014-09-12 The Temiars a Mon Khmer speaking Orang Asli society living in the uplands of northern Peninsular Malaysia have long attracted popular attention in the West for reports that ascribed to them the special psychotherapeutic technique known as Senoi Dreamwork However the reality of Temiar religion and society as studied and recorded by Geoffrey Benjamin is even more fascinating than that popular portrayal which he shows to be based on a serious misrepresentation of Temiar practice When Benjamin first lived in the isolated villages of the Temiars between 1964 and 1965 he encountered a people who lived by swidden farming supplemented by hunting and fishing They practised their own localised animistic religion in an area where the main religion was once Mahayana Buddhism and is now Islam Half a century later the Temiars have become much more deeply embedded in broader Malaysian society while retaining their distinctive way of life and maintaining their complex animistic religious beliefs Benjamin s ongoing fieldwork in the 1970s 1990s and 2000s followed the Temiars through processes of religious disenchantment and re enchantment as they reacted in various ways to the advent of Baha i Islam and Christianity Some

Temiars even developed a new religion of their own In addition to its rich ethnographic reportage the book proposes a novel theory of religion and in the process develops a deeply insightful account of the changing intellectual framework of anthropology over the past half century *The Amateur's Flower Garden.
