Doing Integrative Theology Myk Habets,Phil Halstead,2016-02-09 The doing of theology comes in many different guises and styles This volume is concerned with Integrative Theology a discipline which serves participation in the mission of God It is a practice of discernment by which we aim to be attentive to God in God s world God s word and God s work so as to grow in our understanding of what God wants for and is doing in the world We seek this knowledge so that we may align ourselves with God s desire in relation to specific Towards Vital Wholeness in Theological Education Jessy Jaison, 2017-08-14 God's interest in the entirety of our existence, and the details of his creation, is quite rightly lauded by professing Christians, including those involved in theological education. But what impact does this biblical truth have on the way in which theological education is conducted? Critics are increasingly bringing attention to the shortcomings of theological education in this regard. In this thorough examination of the issue of holistic practices throughout the operations of theological institutions, Dr. Jessy Jaison provides sage and actionable solutions where others have merely observed systemic weaknesses. Jaison has applied her expertise and experience of twenty-five years in theological education in India to dissect the issues, diagnose the symptoms, and prescribe a way forward that will lead to stronger leaders practicing healthier ministry in God's Kingdom for those who have ears to hear.

THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH: FAITH SEEKING RELATEDNESS George Gammack, 2015-08-13 We all know what church is. Likewise, we are provided with a supply of set notions for God, Christ, and the Bible, which make up the stock-in-trade equipment for both believer and non-believer. This study asks fundamental questions about all these from a relational perspective, attempting to illumine the faith quest by way of clues from the common realities of human interaction. In this, it is the appropriate provisions of relationships rather than the assent to doctrines that forms the spiritual basis of community. Such a theology of relatedness is urgently needed. We must come out of our creedal closets to be part of a new diaspora. This demands a secret discipline of servant relationship at work in that no man's land where there is space for all manner of secular saints and doctrinal devils to discover the possibilities of their togetherness: the secret service church in odd places.
