Colonial Reports - Annual Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1937 Each number comprises the annual report of a different colony for a particular year      Muslims in Singapore Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, Alexius Pereira, Bryan S. Turner, 2009-09-10 This book examines Muslims in Singapore analysing their habits practices and dispositions towards everyday life and also their role within the broader framework of the secularist Singapore state and the cultural dominance of its Chinese elite who are predominantly Buddhist and Christian Singapore has a highly unusual approach to issues of religious diversity and multiculturalism adopting a policy of deliberately managing religions including Islam in an attempt to achieve orderly and harmonious relations between different racial and religious groups This has encompassed implicit and explicit policies of containment and enclavement of Muslims and also the more positive policy of upgrading Muslims through paternalist strategies of education training and improvement including the modernisation of madrassah education in both content and orientation This book examines how this system has operated in practice and evaluates its successes and failures In particular it explores the attitudes and reactions of Muslims themselves across all spheres of everyday life including dining and maintaining halal vigilance education and dress code and practices of courtship sex and marriage It also considers the impact of wider international developments including 9 11 fear of terrorism and the associated stigmatization of Muslims and developments within Southeast Asia such as the Jemaah Islamiah terrorist attacks and the Islamization of Malaysia and Indonesia This study has more general implications for political strategies and public policies in multicultural societies that are deeply divided along ethno religious lines      Colonial Reports--annual ,1938      AgExporter ,1989      The Evolution of Strategic Foresight Tuomo Kuosa, 2016-03-16 Embracing the theory and practice of strategic foresight and illuminating how different schools of thought regard its role in policy making Tuomo Kuosa describes how something not traditionally considered an independent discipline is steadily becoming one In The Evolution of Strategic Foresight he explains how the practice of strategic foresight has long been closely associated with the military and politics Linking strategic thinking more broadly to futurology however it is quite new Since strategic foresight refers to the practice of generating analyses of alternative futures and strategies based on available intelligence and foreknowledge the practice can and should be applied to companies business sectors national and trans national agencies of all descriptions and to all aspects of public policy making The author explains its practice in terms of structure process and knowledge domains and examines its methodologies and systems along with how strategic foresight can be used to produce better knowledge and be more effectively linked to policy making Using examples from 30 different countries and with access to interviews and workshops involving key experts The Evolution of Strategic Foresight will be valuable to scholars educators students engaged in strategy and future studies long range public policy and urban planners analysts risk assessment experts and consultants managers and decision makers in many organisations public and private      Animal Slaughter and Handling of Meat Brunei.

submariners reactions and attitudes toward their victims exploring the sailors personal standards of morality and their ability to wage total war Surface and Destroy is a thorough analysis of the submariner experience and the effects of surface attacks on the war in the Pacific offering a compelling study of the battles that became intolerably personal     Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
