

The background is a painting of a church interior. The architecture features high, vaulted ceilings with ribbed arches. A large, multi-paned window on the right side allows bright light to enter, creating a strong contrast with the darker interior. The floor is covered with numerous dark, silhouetted birds, possibly pigeons, scattered across the foreground and middle ground. The overall color palette is dominated by deep blues, greys, and the warm yellow light from the window.

Sydney Marcia Cameron,2016-10-19 The Diocese of Sydney is admired hated loved and feared While often criticized as no longer Anglican it has at its heart an adherence to classic Anglicanism While to some it is a beacon in the darkness to others it is like a threatening bushfire It is very large very wealthy and very influential in other places Its opposition to ordaining women priests and in many parishes to women preaching mystifies and angers many Anglicans within and outside its boundaries What makes this diocese such a phenomenon The answer lies in its history in the men and women who shaped it in a particular view of the authority of the Bible and in the influence wielded by some powerful institutions that have prospered Its energy comes from the Scriptural mandate for mission to bring the outsider into the community of Christian people but not to leave it there To educate them in the knowledge of Christ in a variety of creative and imaginative ways This book also looks at what Sydney has done badly It may help readers to learn from its past achievements and its mistakes
