Sun Maiden and the Crescent Moon James Riordan,1990-12-31 Siberia From this strange and beautiful land comes an oral tradition that has altered little in two thousand years Here is a true spiritual democracy and purity of folk art rarely found in traditional tales      The Sun Maiden and the Crescent Moon James Riordan,2006-02-01      Earth Tales from around the World Michael J. Caduto,2016-11-29 Stories come from around the world but they grow from the very earth upon which they are first told Michael J Caduto invites readers to listen while the Earth tells these stories through his lyrical retellings of tales such as Hare Rescues the Sun and The Coming of Fire      The Anthropology of Hunter-Gatherers Vicki Cummings,2020-07-12 This book provides a basic introduction to key debates in the study of hunter gatherers specifically from an anthropological perspective but designed for an archaeological audience Hunter gatherers have been the focus of intense anthropological research and discussion over the last hundred years and as such there is an enormous literature on communities all over the world Yet among the diverse range of peoples studied there are a number of recurrent themes including not only the way in which people make a living hunting gathering and fishing but also striking similarities in other areas of life such as belief systems and social organisation These themes are described and then explored through archaeological case studies The overarching theme throughout the volume is the use of ethnographic analogy and how archaeologists should be critical in its use      Myths and Hero Tales Agnes Regan Perkins,1997-11-25 This one stop cross cultural selective guide to recent retellings of myths and hero tales for children and young adults will enable teachers and library media specialists to select comparative myths and tales from various mostly non European cultures The focus is on stories from Native America Asia Africa the Middle East Central and South America and Oceania The Guide contains extensively annotated entries on 189 books of retellings of myths and hero tales both ancient and modern from around the world published between 1985 and 1996 Represented are 1 455 stories suitable for use with young people from mid elementary through high school The entries arranged alphabetically by writer contain complete bibliographic data age and grade levels and evaluative annotations Seven indexes title author illustrator culture story type name and grade level make searching easy The story type index will enable teachers to select comparative myths and tales from different cultures on more than 50 types of myths and hero tales Among the many myth types cited are origin of human beings and the world comparative social customs and rituals natural and heavenly phenomena animal appearance and behavior searches and quests and tricksters Among the hero tale types are fools and buffoons kings and queens warriors monster slayers important female figures magicians voyagers and adventurers and spiritual leaders The Guide concludes with a bibliography of retellings published earlier that have come to be considered standard works      Merciless Richard Montanari,2008-07-29 On a frigid December night Karen sits at the edge of Philadelphia s Schuylkill River dressed in a flowing gown like a visitor from the distant past A beautiful and shining young woman she gazes up at a bone white winter moon like a fairy tale princess frozen in time At first glance one might not even notice that she is dead coated in a glistening patina of ice Homicide cops Kevin Byrne and Jessica Balzano take the lead on the case uncovering a plethora of eerie clues each more warped and spine chilling than the last Yet the identity of Karen s pitiless killer remains a mystery Then the next victim is found upriver at an abandoned waterworks posed with an unlikely object in her clasped hands Struggling to link the victims and make sense of the madman s agenda Byrne and Balzano follow his twisted trail which stretches into a past of dark crimes forgotten by all but a few Now the past roars back into the present with a vengeance as the ingenious killer unleashes a torrent of rage upon the streets of Philadelphia As Byrne and Balzano sift through suspects and clues they unearth a shocking secret history a legacy of malevolence and cold blooded retribution dating back twenty years And the farther they make their way up the body strewn banks of the Schuylkill River the closer they get to a villain from their worst nightmare an evil as patient as it is merciless Lightning fast and razor sharp this jolting thriller from acclaimed author Richard Montanari coils back in time to deliver a fiendish mystery a shattering revelation and one hell of a wild ride Lock your doors and turn up the lights Montanari s terrifying bedtime story will keep you up all night Soul Loss and the Shamanic Story Michael Berman,2009-03-26

Stories from various cultures and periods of time can be identified which deal with a concept of soul loss that is essentially shamanic In shamanism soul loss is the term used to describe the way parts of the psyche become detached when we are faced with traumatic situations In shamanic terms these split off parts can be found in non ordinary reality and are only accessible to those familiar with its topography Case studies are presented to show how the way soul loss is dealt with by indigenous shamans differs from the way it is treated by neo shamanic practitioners Stories have traditionally been classified as epics myths sagas legends folk tales fairy tales parables and fables However the definitions of the terms have a tendency to overlap making it difficult to classify and categorize material For this reason a case can be made for the introduction of a new genre termed the shamanic story a story that has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey a numinous experience in non ordinary reality or one that contains a number of the elements typical of such a journey Within this new genre it is proposed that there exists a sub genre shamanic stories that deal specifically with soul loss and examples are presented and analysed to support this hypothesis The Archaeology of Shamanism Neil S. Price,2001 No Australian
