

Poem About Moon and Sun

By Maya Anthony

In twilight's soft and fleeting hour,
Moon and sun share transient power,
A dance of light in the evening bower,
In their embrace, night and day flower.

Sun's last kiss on the horizon lies,
Moon's first glance in the twilight skies,
In their meeting, magic flies,
A spectacle for mortal eyes.

As day departs with a golden sigh,
Night arrives with the moon's reply,
In this exchange, under the sky,
Sun and moon, in harmony, lie.

The Collected Poems 1912-1944 of H. D. brings together all the shorter poems and poetical sequences of Hilda Doolittle (1886-1961) written before 1945. Divided into four parts, this landmark volume now available as a New Directions Paperbook includes the complete Collected Poems of 1925 and Red Roses for Bronze (1931). Of special significance are the Uncollected and Unpublished Poems 1912-1944, the third section of the book, written mainly in the 1930s during H. D.'s supposed fallow period. As these pages reveal, she was in fact writing a great deal of important poetry at the time, although publishing only a small part of it. The later wartime poems in this section form an essential prologue to her magnificent Trilogy (1944), the fourth and culminating part of this book. Born in Pennsylvania in 1886, Hilda Doolittle moved to London in 1911 in the footsteps of her friend and one-time fiancé Ezra Pound. Indeed, it was Pound, acting as the London scout for Poetry magazine, who helped her begin her extraordinary career, penning the words "H. D. Imagiste" to a group of six poems and sending them on to editor Harriet Monroe in Chicago. The Collected Poems 1912-1944 traces the continual expansion of H. D.'s work from her early imagistic mode to the prophetic style of her hidden years in the 1930s, climaxing in the broader, mature accomplishment of Trilogy. The book is edited by Professor Louis L. Martz of Yale, who supplies valuable textual notes and an introductory essay that relates the significance of H. D.'s life to her equally remarkable literary achievement. The Collected Poems of Howard Nemerov Howard Nemerov, 2024-05-31

The former Poet Laureate of the United States, Nemerov gives us a lucid and precise twist on the commonplaces of everyday life. The Collected Poems of Howard Nemerov won both the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize in 1978. Howard Nemerov is a witty, urbane, thoughtful poet grounded in the classics, a master of the craft. It is refreshing to read his work. Minneapolis Tribune: "The world causes in Nemerov a mingled revulsion and love, and a hopeless hope is the most attractive quality in his poems, which slowly turn obverse to reverse, seeing the permanence of change, the vices of virtue, the evanescence of solidities, and the errors of truth." Helen Vendler, New York Times Book Review. The Collected Poems of Octavio Paz, 1957-1987 Octavio Paz, 1991

Contains almost 200 collected poems in both Spanish and English. The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01

Winner of the C. Hugh Holman Award. A central figure in twentieth-century American literature, Robert Penn Warren (1905-1989) was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1985. Although better known for his fiction, especially his novel All the King's Men, it is mainly his poetry, spanning sixty years, fifteen volumes of verse, and a wide range of styles, that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters. In this indispensable volume, John Burt Warren's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published, with the exception of Brother to Dragons, including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines, as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes lists of emendations and explanatory notes Warren was born and raised in Guthrie Kentucky where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy By 1925 when he graduated from Vanderbilt University he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren's later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process
